Meditation—He is Risen!

"I rose up and am still with Thee." After His labors and His humiliations, Christ finds rest with His Father. "I am still with Thee." This is perfect beatitude. Through His cross He entered into the possession of eternal glory. Christ has gained the crown of victory; through Christ men also win their crowns of victory. Humanity was under a curse and subject to the wrath of God. Now that they have risen with Christ, their guilt has been destroyed. "I rose up and am still with Thee." The liturgy places these words in the mouth of the Church that she may pray them with Christ.

"The earth trembled and was still when God arose in judgment." The resurrection of Christ is the judgment and condemnation of those who have turned away from God. This judgment was pre-figured by the angel who passed through the land of Egypt destroying the first-born of the Egyptians. The Israelites marked the doors of their houses with the blood of the paschal lamb. We are the new Israel, and "Christ our Pasch is sacrificed." We mark ourselves with His blood, which we enjoy in the Holy Eucharist. We have been pardoned, we are saved, we shall live.

"He is risen." The resurrection of Christ is a pledge of our own resurrection. It is the foundation upon which our faith rests. It is the guarantee of our redemption and God's assurance that our sins are forgiven and that we are called to eternal life. "This is the day which the Lord hath made; let us be glad and rejoice therein. Give praise to the Lord, for He is good, for His mercy endures forever. Alleluia."

"Christ our Pasch is sacrificed. . . . The Lamb redeems the sheep. Christ, the innocent One, hath reconciled sinners to the Father."

—Excerpted from The Light of the World by Benedict Baur, O.S.B.

Can we trust the Gospels? Were these accounts written centuries later or by individuals with firsthand knowledge of Jesus? What about the so-called "lost gospels," such as the Gospel of Thomas? Get the answers to these questions and many more! Join us as we go through the video Bible study lecture series by Dr. Brant Pitre, The Case for Jesus. In this series, Dr. Pitre examines why the Gospels are reliable sources of information and looks at the historical evidence that backs up this claim.

Sacred Heart School News

Holy Week is a short week for Sacred Heart
School. We dismissed at 11:00 A.M. on Thursday, but we encouraged the students to return for the Holy Thursday service at 6:00 P.M.

We had two soccer games this week. On Monday, we played Leoma there and came away with a 0-0 tie. On Tuesday, we played Leoma on our field, and we lost
2-0. Our next game is Tuesday, April 11, at Leoma.

We had a visiting priest, Father Blatchford, who gave four talks during Holy Week. In his second talk on Wednesday night, he suggested to the audience that they view the five videos on EWTN concerning the transgender movement. Here is the website if you want to watch these very informative videos:

Mac Brown Photography was at SHS on Wednesday morning to make spring pictures. The students looked very nice in their dress clothes. Individual, class pictures, and family pictures were made.

Because of the rain, the Pre-K and Kindergarten
students had to have their Easter egg hunt in the gym on Thursday morning. That did not diminish the fun these students had in finding the eggs that had been scattered throughout the gym.

Have a blessed Easter season, and thank you for your prayers and support.
