SACRED HEART CHURCH

221 Berger Street
Lawrenceburg, Tennessee 38464

May 31, 2026 — Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

The fundamental dogma, on which everything in Christianity is based, is that of the Blessed Trinity in whose name all Christians are baptized. The feast of the Blessed Trinity needs to be understood and celebrated as a prolongation of the mysteries of Christ and as the solemn expression of our faith in this triune life of the Divine Persons, to which we have been given access by Baptism and by the Redemption won for us by Christ. Only in heaven shall we properly understand what it means, in union with Christ, to share as sons in the very life of God.

Sacred Heart School News

We are excited to welcome Mrs. Maty White to our Middle School Team starting this Fall. Mrs. White brings five years of teaching experience along with years of working with children through summer camps and church programs. She joined the Catholic Church in 2022 and shares that she feels incredibly blessed to now teach in a Catholic school environment.

Mrs. White and her husband, Elijah, a Sacred Heart alumni, have an almost 2-year-old daughter, Josie, who keeps them busy and smiling! As a family, they enjoy traveling, spending time outdoors, and with family and friends.

Mrs. White is passionate about creating a positive and engaging classroom where students are encouraged to grow academically, personally, and spiritually. She believes in maintaining high expectations while making learning meaningful and enjoyable.

Please join us in giving Mrs. White a warm Sacred Heart welcome! We are excited for all she will bring to our school family

School News will return after summer break!

The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) will livestream the 2026 Spring Plenary Assembly in Orlando, Florida, June 10-12, which will include the consecration of the United States to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. The assembly will be livestreamed on the USCCB website.

In celebration of the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, the U.S. bishops will consecrate the United States of America to the Sacred Heart of Jesus on at 11 a.m. CT on Thursday, June 11. To prepare for this occasion, the bishops will hear reflections on the Sacred Heart from several of their brother bishops before the special Mass of consecration, which will be livestreamed on the USCCB's YouTube channel. The bishops' livestream event is intended to be a catalyst to encourage parishes and individuals to participate in the America 250 commemoration by contributing to 250 Hours of Adoration and/or 250 Works of Mercy.

Parish Ministries

Ladies Bible Study will break for the summer

Resuming Wednesday, August 12, 2026

Meeting time: every Sunday (unless notified otherwise) in the Cafeteria after the 8:00 a.m. Mass. Coffee and donuts are served.

Men of the Parish: consider trying us out (the Fraternity of Exodus 90) for five (5) weeks as we study and reflect on the First Book of Kings. As always, we will be focusing on prayer, asceticism and fraternity. We are a true Brotherhood. We lean on each other and we learn from each other as we try to become better men for our families and loved ones.

Meeting time: every Wednesday (unless notified otherwise) in the Cafeteria at 6:30 p.m. A shared meal, good conversation, prayer, and time to be active.

Brotherhood is back. It's time. This isn't a class or a lecture. It's real friendship, real formation, and probably the best time you'll have all week. Bring your son(5th grade and up). Bring a friend. Or just show up. You'll be welcomed. You'll be challenged. You'll walk away knowing you're not alone.

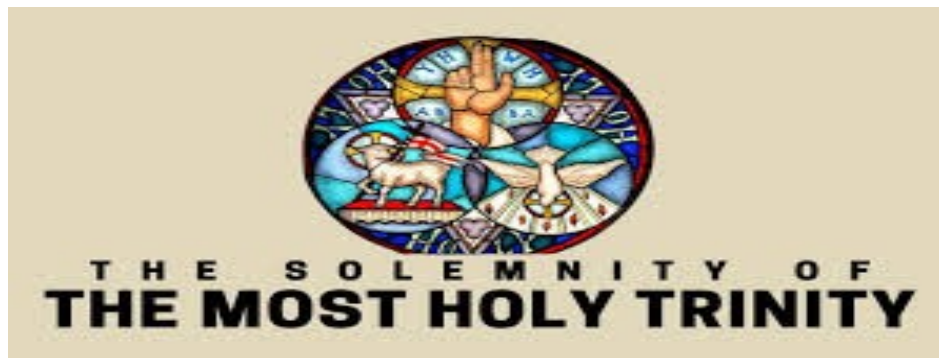

Boys don't become men by accident, they need a Brotherhood.

St Vincent de Paul Society

Meeting time: every second Wednesday (unless otherwise notified) in the Art Room at 5:00 p.m.

SVDP offers food assistance to neighbors in need. If you know of someone struggling to provide food for themselves and or family, call 931-201-0786. You may also make donations to the SVDP charity through the collection plate at Mass with your donations marked "SVDP".

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity commemorates a central doctrine of Christianity, the Trinity. This doctrine, which developed over centuries, focuses on the nature of God which it defines as one God existing in three coeternal, consubstantial divine "persons." These "three persons" are said to be distinct, yet they share one essence, one substance and one nature.

The Council of Nicaea in 325 C.E. established the consubstantiality between the Father and Son, and the Council of Constantinople in 381 C.E. confirmed the consubstantiality of the Holy Spirit with the Father and Son. Although the traditional names for the triune God are God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit, titles such as Creator, Redeemer and Sanctifier — among others — can also be found within the Christian tradition.

It is important to note that the doctrine of the Trinity neither originated in the Bible nor during biblical times. The Gospel of John, however, does provide a kernel of thought that helped to shape the doctrine. Thus, the solemnity being celebrated today has a rich and long history, and the reinterpretation of the names of the "persons" of the Trinity continues to be of interest to current theologians, scholars, mystics and religious thinkers.

The liturgical readings for today's celebration hone in on three themes: identity, unity and power.

The first reading from Exodus presents us with an ancient Near Eastern image of a deity who appears as a storm god residing in the heavens and descending to earth in a cloud. Even though the image of this deity is regal — a king coming down off his throne to encounter the human community — the description of the exchange between Moses and the Divine One is both relational and intimate. This Holy One who stands with Moses is merciful, gracious, slow to anger, and rich in kindness and fidelity.

Although the metaphorical title "Lord" is imperial and reflects the existence of ancient Near Eastern overlords who owned vast amounts of property and managed a contingent of laborers who worked the land, this Holy One is benevolent and not hegemonic, self-revealing and not deceptive.

The second reading from 2 Corinthians speaks of unity, beginning with the salutation "brothers and sisters" that establishes a sense of relationship. The call to mend one's ways suggests that even within the early Christian communities, strife and disagreements existed. The end goal is to work out differences, to create a climate of encouragement, acceptance, affection and respect so that peace can take root, flourish and be sustained by the God of love and peace.

The last part of the reading is a prayer with Trinitarian overtones that expresses the hope for all divisions and misunderstandings to be healed by the grace of Christ, the love of God and the friendship of the Holy Spirit.

This reading brings to mind the message of Pope Leo XIV, who repeatedly calls for peace in the face of militarism and arms escalation, wars and Jihadist violence. Peace is the pope's exhortation as he traverses continents and addresses people globally. His desire is for unity to be realized.

Finally, the Gospel reading from John reminds us that Christ's mission was not the condemnation of the world but the salvation of the world. Too often Christian believers personalize this message, making Jesus their personal savior and thus divorcing the message from the mission. The work of Christ — indeed, the work of the Gospel — is the work of transformation.

The Gospel story as a whole presents Christ as a transformative leader who caused tension among the political, social, economic and religious leaders of his day. He made people in power uncomfortable because he called out their unjust and oppressive actions. The male Christ had no problem addressing unjust systems and systemic injustices created and carried out by the males in power.

Today's readings are a wake-up call to all in power, especially if they are Jewish, Christian or Muslim leaders, and in particular if they are Catholic leaders. Although the portraits of God throughout the Old Testament are oftentimes troublesome because they are violent, this God presented in today's readings is the Holy One of love and peace, whom some may call Adonai or Allah. Christ and the Holy Spirit as portrayed by the Christian Scriptures are the embodiment of peace and love.

The disconnect between what world leaders hear in the Scriptures and how they are conducting their "business," cries to heaven for justice. Furthermore, those leaders who espouse global violence ought to take a good look at themselves in the mirror and ask one simple question, "How am I embodying Christ?"

The power of the Trinity has yet to be unleashed.
