Shrove Tuesday

The day before Ash Wednesday is a celebration marking the start of the penitential season of Lent. Before Lent—a time of prayer, fasting and penance through a period of 40 days until Easter—Catholics and others celebrate with festivities known by several names.

In the United States, it is most commonly known as Mardi Gras, French for Fat Tuesday. The tradition includes consuming foods containing animal fat before the beginning of Lent. Catholics enjoy a day of festivities, sometimes hosting their own carnivals or parties. The largest Mardi Gras celebration in the United States takes place in New Orleans. The celebration is known as Carnival in other parts of the world.

Catholics also prepare for Lent by spiritually removing themselves of sin through the Sacrament of Reconciliation. That is why this day is also referred to as Shrove Tuesday, from the old English word shrive, meaning to confess all sins.

Some countries, including England and Ireland, celebrate Pancake Day by consuming what else—pancakes. For centuries, it's been a tradition to eat pancakes or other foods made with butter, eggs and fat, which would be given up during Lent.

No matter what it's called, the day before Lent is a reminder of the sacrifice that is to come in the next 40 days. We also are reminded of the sacrifices Jesus made as he fasted and prayed for 40 days after his Baptism and before the beginning of his ministry.

Catholics are called to fast, pray and confess sins during this penitential season. For more ideas on making a good Lent, see Recipes and Activities for Mardi Gras.

Sacred Heart School News

The last two school weeks have been cut short because of potential bad weather. We only celebrated three school days during Catholic Schools Week, but the week was a success especially the culmination of that week with our alumni games, Mass, Chili cook-off, and the awarding of the first annual "Lionheart" award. Mr. James Binkley was presented with a trophy, and we have a plaque that will hang in the lobby with Mr. Binkley's name and the names of the winners of this prestigious award each year. Mr. Binkley is a 1961 alumni of Sacred Heart School, and he is our most faithful supporter of every event Sacred Heart School has.

Since the week was cut short, and the students didn't get to enjoy all the events we had planned, we will have one activity per week until we have done all the activities that were planned for Catholic Schools Week. This coming week on Friday, we will have a pajama day. The students may wear their pajamas, watch a movie, and have popcorn while they enjoy the movie.

We had another three-day week this week, and the students will have five days out of school. The school was closed Thursday because of the weather and Friday for teacher in-service. Monday is Presidents Day, so school will be closed.

Our students have started soccer practice which is held on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays from 5:00 pm until 6:30 pm. Knowledge Bowl practice is held every Wednesday from dismissal until 3:00 pm. Mrs. Rosemary Harris is also beginning her cooking classes. The date for this is to be announced. Mr. Schwind meets with the Chess Club every Wednesday morning at 7:00 am. All students are invited to participate in the Chess Club.

Have a blessed week, and thank you for your continued prayers and support.
