NCCW MISSION STATEMENT

The National Council of Catholic Women acts through its membership to support, empower and educate all Catholic women in spirituality, leadership and service. NCCW programs respond with Gospel values to the needs of the Church and society in the modern world.

A Note From Our President

Hello to all our wonderful CCW members. As our Motto, "Forward in Faith," suggests, we are stepping up and stepping out! Keeping in mind the safety protocols directed by our Florida Catholic Bishops, Prince of Peace CCW is moving forward with as many events and activities as possible.

To date, we have successfully planned and conducted 4 Board Meetings, 3 General Meetings with excellent speakers and programs and a Corporate Communion. We also participated in the National Life Chain and the Rosary for America. Our Night of Reflection will be held on December 1. Each of these had excellent participation and increasing member mentoring and involvement.

Well, what's ahead? You can look forward to the Variety Show on January 24 with a fun song and dance by our own talented CCW Dream Girls. Also, think about talent you have and let us know if you would like to participate. You too can be a star!

Ladies, I love hearing new ideas for programs and events. One great idea, suggested by Susan Jennings, is a dog show. Susan is the chairperson. So get a cute, unique costume for your pooch and watch for more details on this fun event to be held in the Spring. We'll have judges, prizes, best of show, etc.

Look forward also to "Flashback Fashion Show" an event suggested by Calvie Dean and Kim Whittaker. This should be a hoot as we present styles from the 1920's to the 2020's. Want to be part of the fashion team? We will start in January 2020. For both fabulous events, we will need lots of volunteers doing a variety of fun assignments. Sign up at our 1st-in-2021 general meeting on January 12.

It is such a joy working with such talented members of our CCW. Thank you, ladies, for making my job so enjoyable. May you each have a wonderful and Blessed Christmas and a fabulous, exciting new 2021!

Love you all, Lauren

November General Meeting

The CCW general meeting was held on Tuesday, Nov. 10th in the Social Hall. Donna Jensen, Executive Director of Grace House was our guest speaker. Grace House Pregnancy Center is a safe place to come when facing an unexpected pregnancy. For more detailed information about the November general meeting please read the minutes that will be sent to you soon in a separate email .

Eastern Deanery

The Fall EDCCW General Meeting was held at St. Ann’s in DeBary on Saturday, October 24th. I attended along with Lauren Morris, Marlene Braganza, Connie Komatz and Rosi Schuhmacher.

As our advisor for the EDCCW, Rosi spoke to us about the importance of mentoring and the difference between a co-chairperson and a vice chairperson. Leadership isn’t just for the president, it’s for everyone.

A motion was made by Lou Carpentier, amended by Ann Hayden and seconded by Marlene that each affiliation (not parish) be assessed a total of $300.00 over the next two years: $150.00 due in April 2021 and $150.00 due in April 2022. It was approved.

It was announced during the meeting that Fr. Miguel Gonzalez is the Spiritual Advisor for the NCCW now in addition to serving in the same capacity for the ODCCW.

“Hugs For The Homeless” will be held December 2020 through February 2021.

The next Board Meeting will be February 6, 2021 at St. Peter’s in DeLand. The Spring general meeting will be March 6th, 2021 at Our Lady of Hope in Port Orange. More information will follow.

The ODCCW Convention will be May 1st- 3rd in Melbourne. More information will follow on this event also.

Spirituality

Hello, all!

As we enter the Advent Season let us remember with great anticipation the coming of our Lord. On December 1st at 6:00 pm we will gather for our Night of Reflection in the main sanctuary in order to practice social distancing as recommended. Father Bernard will say our Mass and then CCW ladies will do some readings. Please come and bring a friend.

Dear father, we come to praise you and express our gratitude for your gift to us in Jesus, our Savior. We do remember that Advent and Christmas are about our Lord coming to save us and this is the greatest gift of all. Amen

Calvie Dean, Spirituality Chair

Legislation

FLCAN is a statewide, online community established by the bishops of Florida that exists to connect, educate, and mobilize Catholics across Florida’s seven dioceses on public policy issues pertaining to life, dignity and the common good.

Pope Francis reminds us, “Each son and daughter of a given country has a mission, a personal and social responsibility.”

As Catholics we are called to participate in public life and to apply Gospel values to our political activities as a joyful public witness to the Church’s social teachings.

FLCAN provides the opportunity to speak on behalf of the poor, the disabled, the sick or dying, the unborn, the elderly, families and children, immigrants, the imprisoned and others in need. By raising our voices together, we strengthen the presence of the Catholic faithful in the public square. The website will give updates on:

- *Action alerts on key bills at both the state and federal levels that allow for quick and easy messaging to elected officials
- *Reports, summaries and educational materials that identify legislative proposals affecting issues important to our faith
- *Calls to prayer for the people of our state and nation and our elected leader

Here is the Website that will lead you to FLCAN:

Membership Memo

It was great to see everyone at our November 10 meeting! We had an outstanding speaker with hand-outs regarding phone scams and fraud.

A special welcome goes out to our new member, Exaltacion (Sally) Moore.

The vote for an increase in dues was agreed upon by all. Therefore, dues are now $15. So please plan to get those dues in by our next meeting on December 1st. If you are still being cautious about attending our meetings, please just drop a check in the mail for $15 and send it to me made out to “Prince of Peace CCW” at the following address: Linda Guidotti, 18 Spring Meadows Drive, Ormond Beach, FL 32174. I will then record it and pass it to our treasurer. We must get the dues in so our treasurer can pay for our state and national dues by end of December. So please be sure to send the dues in ASAP.

I hope to see you all at our Night of Reflection on December 1st.

The two sacraments of healing are Penance and Anointing the Sick. Penance, or Reconciliation, allows for spiritual healing and absolution for people who have distanced themselves from God through sin.

Anointing the sick allows for both physical and spiritual healing. When one falls seriously ill, a minister anoints them and prays over them, calling on Christ to strengthen and heal.

Respect Life

Prince of Peace participated in the annual "Life Chain" on Sunday, November 1st. Thank you to all who attended and to all who helped me sign up participants, etc. We had a good turnout especially considering the pandemic. Approximately 40 people were at Walmart and 17 attended the Church program. Thank you all again for witnessing for life!

The Annual March for Life In Washington, D.C. will be held on Friday, January 29th, 2021 (website: "marchforlife.org").

The two-mile march will leave from the shrine at 10:30 am and return there. There will be speakers, music and food trucks at the shrine throughout the day. The Knights of Columbus will be selling hot dogs and hamburgers as well. More information will be forthcoming. We will be carpooling. Also, this website has more details. Media Matters

There are three upcoming notifications that have been sent to be displayed on the TV prompts in the vestibule, the Bulletin and on our webpage. They include our Night of Reflection, one for Christmas gifts available in our Religious Articles Shop and the last one is for the group Christmas photo that we took together at our last meeting and states "Oh What Fun" it is to join CCW!

I hope and wish you have a very safe and happy Holiday Season:)

CCW Correspondence

In November, get well cards were sent to Carol Katrenicz, Peter Tydir (Ivona's Husband) and Stephen Meade (Lauren's fiancé). Carol is back home still using a walker and hooked up to an IV Bag. She is improving each and every day. Ivona's husband, Peter, had a catheter put in last week. He will begin dialysis after Thanksgiving. Lauren's fiancé, Stephen, is dramatically improving having fought back a second attack of cancer.

Please keep all of our members in prayer as we ask the Good Lord to eradicate this horrible Covid19 virus permanently and quickly. Stay well everyone and have a blessed holiday season thinking about all of the ways the Lord has blessed your life. Stay positive, as that is one way to stay healthy and happy.

If anyone needs a "cheer" note or get-well card please let me know at 386-672-0999. I will make certain our prayer chain receives the information.

Again, to all, Merry Christmas and a Blessed New Year.

Debbie Peterson, Corresponding Secretary

Leadership

Like most everyone, CCW sisters are hardwired to give to others and make a difference. Besides faith, fun, friends and fellowship, the CCW's mission to give provides its members with increased self-confidence, accomplishment, pride, purpose, meaning and a sense of belonging. We have many exciting events and service projects in the works including a Membership Tea, a Variety Show, a Dog Show fundraiser, a Fashion Show, an Arts and Crafts Show, a Night of Reflection, Corporate Communion Sundays, Military Care Packages, Hugs for the Homeless and Life Chain. We work to support many local organizations such as the Family Renew Community, the Pregnancy Crisis Center and Water for Life to help our sister diocese. There is something for everyone so join us in our quest to positively impact our community and our Prince of Peace family by joining the CCW.

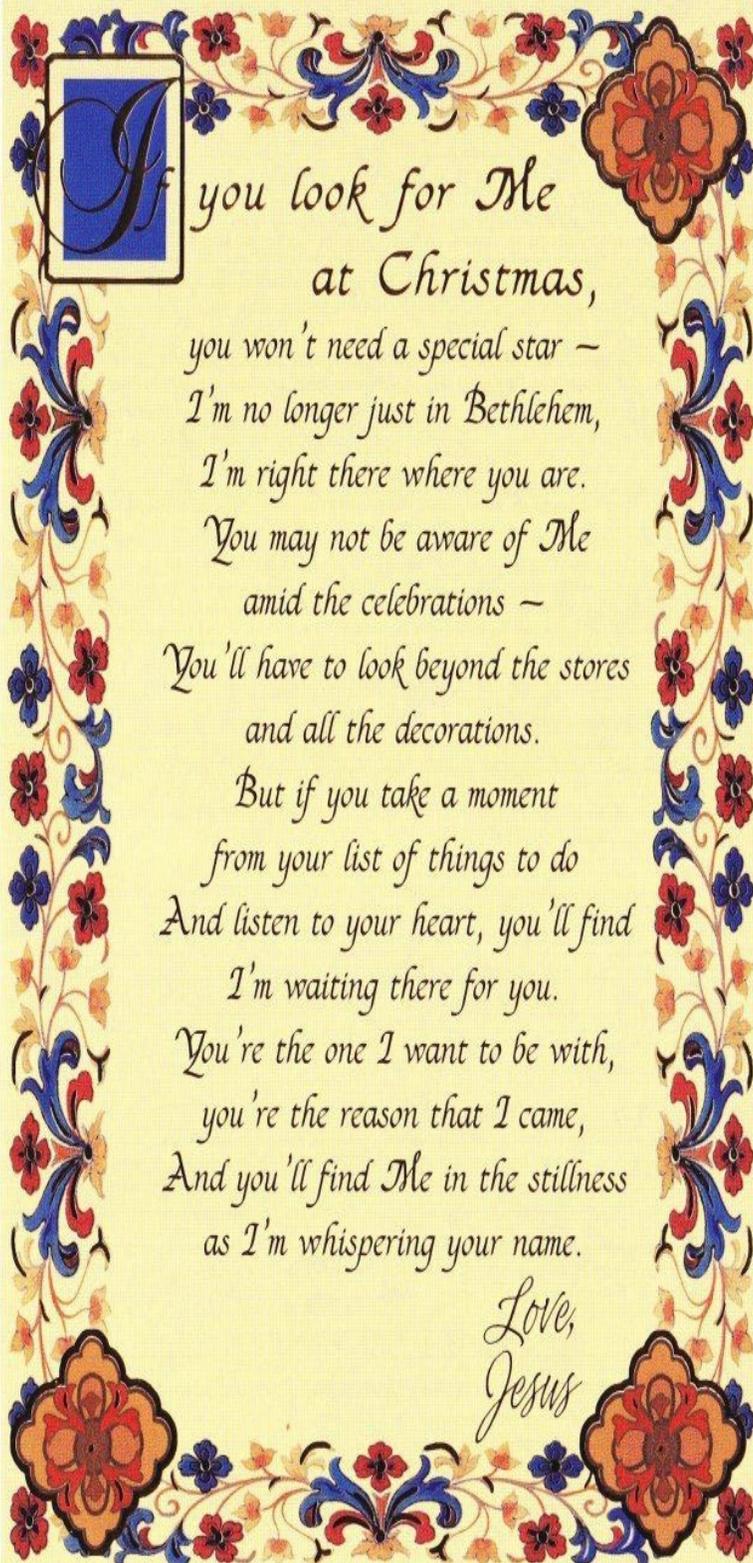

God Bless.

CCW Events News

The Evening of Reflection is Tuesday, December 1. We will not be using the Social Hall after the Reflection Service.

This holy time of the year is a perfect time to remember your Prayer Partner. I will have the PP box available in church for you to drop off your card for your Prayer Partner. Please remember to put the name (first and last name) of your Prayer Partner on the outside of the envelope. If you are not at the Evening of Reflection, please send your card by mail. May this be a special time for you to pray, meditate, and spend time with the Lord.

As will be the case through the April/ May issue, this newsletter is a "double" issue. Look for our next publication in early February.

This Holiday Season is such a wonder-filled time to ponder the many gifts we have received from God with His great love for us and our fellow travelers in this wonderful life. Let us remember to stay safe and healthy as we share these gifts with our loved ones during these pandemic years.

Wishing you all a glorious Christmas and a New Year filled with many gifts of grace and blessings from above.
