

Welcome to the Catholic Communities of St. Ann, St. John Neumann & St. Vincent de Paul

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

19 OCTOBER 2025

Our help is from the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

PERSISTENCE

Today's readings are about persistence, passionate persistence. Exodus tells of a battle won despite weariness because Moses, with help from Aaron and Hur, held his hands raised. Timothy asks that same persistence of his community and us. Luke tells of a court case won by a widow, despite the dishonesty of the judge, because she will not leave him alone. The psalm reminds us that God is everywhere, guarding us from harm day and night, coming and going, now and forever. The readings are about persistence, the relentless, unwavering pursuit of what must not be lost. The readings are about God's passionate persistence in pursuing us, seeking to win our hearts.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Although the hours of daylight are rapidly dwindling, many people would say that these October days bring the year's most splendid weather. Americans are riders and joggers, not strollers, and so the pleasures of the season are often lost on us. This is not the case with many Jewish people, who observe an ancient rule in walking to synagogue on the Sabbath. On city streets and suburban sidewalks in many cities, we may notice around sunset the nicely dressed families walking and chatting on Friday afternoon. After a short prayer at dusk, the families stroll home again for a relaxing and festive meal. They return to synagogue in the morning, and then spend an afternoon in family leisure until three stars appear in the night sky and Sabbath ends.

Catholics, on the other hand, pile into the car and drive even a short distance to Mass; some even divide the family to participate at different hours. For Jews, the leisurely walk marks a dividing line between hectic life commitments and a day of abundant joy and enrichment. Before we became an automobile culture, Catholics embraced a similar pace, and in most places walked to church. These lovely days of fall invite us to tap into an old and life-giving tradition. If you live within a mile of your church, walk next week. If you must drive, park at a good distance and walk the rest of the way. Talk about your life, greet strangers, notice the crunch of leaves under your shoes. You may be surprised at how different Sunday Mass feels when it is framed by leisure!

VIGIL MASS & REMEMBRANCE CANDLES

All deceased members of our parish community will be remembered at the All Souls Vigil Mass on Saturday, November 1st. During the Vigil, a candle will be lit for each person being remembered. Family members are invited to take their candle home afterward as a comforting way to keep their memory close. Candles may also be requested in honor of loved ones who were not members of our parish. Family members and friends are warmly welcome to attend. Please contact the Parish Office to include a name or request a candle.

During the month of November, we remember our dear departed loved ones.

REMEMBRANCE TABLE

We invite parishioners to bring a photo of a deceased loved one to be placed on the Remembrance Table, located at the front of the church. This year, all three parishes will be participating. Copies of photos may be placed on the table during the week or at any weekend Mass. If you bring an original photo or framed picture, please be sure to tape your name and phone number to the back so we can ensure all photos and frames are returned to their families.

REMEMBRANCES

Those who receive offertory envelopes in the mail will find an All Souls envelope included in your packet. Those who do not receive envelopes can find them at the entrance of the church. Please print the names of your loved ones on the envelope and place it in the collection basket or return it to the parish office by October 24th. You may also scan the code to submit your list online.

BEREAVEMENT/GRIEF MINISTRY

A support group formed to give comfort to those who are suffering the loss of a loved one.

A six-week series will take place on Mondays covering a variety of topics chosen to help those who are grieving. The death of a loved one is difficult to accept and meeting with people who are feeling the same way can help.

All meetings will be held at St. John Neumann's Parish Hall, 705 Route 739, Hawley, PA beginning on Monday, October 13, 2025 through Monday, November 17, 2025 from 2:00 PM until 3:30 PM. Light refreshments will be served.

If you would like to attend these meetings or if you'd like more information, please call the Parish Office at 570-775-6791 or email at stvgriefgroup@att.net.

Please join us for various presentations on relevant topics in a supportive atmosphere.

THE ROSARY TREE

During the month of October, our parish honors Mary, the Mother of God, with a Rosary Tree. The large branch placed in the sanctuary reminds us that our faith is living and growing, deeply rooted in prayer. The rosary draped through its branches symbolizes our prayers rising to heaven and our devotion to Mary, who always leads us closer to her Son, Jesus.

NOTICE REGARDING REPORTING SEXUAL ABUSE OF A MINOR

It is the policy of the Diocese of Scranton to report any allegation of sexual abuse of a minor to law enforcement. If you are a victim of sexual abuse committed by a priest, deacon, religious or lay employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Scranton, you are encouraged to immediately report the matter to law enforcement. If any priest, deacon, religious, lay employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Scranton has cause or reason to suspect that a minor has been subjected to any form of abuse, including child sexual abuse, the matter will be reported to law enforcement.

It is also the policy of the Diocese to adhere to all civil and state regulations. In accordance with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania's Child Protective Services Laws, reports of suspected child abuse should also be made immediately by phone to the 24-Hour Child Abuse hot-line (ChildLine) at 1-800-932-0313 or electronically at www.compass.state.pa.us/cwis. This end, the Diocese is equally committed to adhering to the norms of the Code of Canon Law and to upholding the tenets of the USCCB Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People, which includes supporting victims of sexual abuse in their pursuit of emotional and spiritual well-being.

Information regarding an allegation of sexual abuse of a minor should also be reported to the Victim Assistance Coordinator Mary Beth Pacuska at 570-862-7551.

The icon on the cover...

This icon invites prayerful reflection on the life and mission of Saint Paul of the Cross, founder of the Passionists. Depicted holding the crucifix close to his heart, he reminds us of his lifelong devotion to the Passion of Christ—seeing in it both the depth of God's love and the source of all compassion.

The image echoes Paul's call to embrace suffering with faith and to find hope in the Cross. His calm, contemplative expression draws the viewer into that mystery, encouraging trust in God's mercy and perseverance in times of trial.

We encounter Christ in Word, Worship, Service and Community.
