SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

18 JANUARY 2026

Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will.

SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

As we enter Ordinary Time, following the Christmas season, our readings suggest that something extraordinary is going on.

In the passage from Isaiah, during the time of their exile the people of Israel are terribly confused and lost, and they long desperately for the healing and renewing presence of God. A servant is chosen, called to remind God's people that God's promises to them will be fulfilled. In the Gospel, as we move to the ministry of John the Baptist, Israel is again aching for God to be present among them. John proclaims that Jesus is the real deal, the Lamb of God, the fulfillment of God's promises. The Holy Spirit remains with Jesus. And as John testifies, when Jesus baptizes with the Spirit, this is God healing and renewing the people.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The symbols and actions of baptism evolved around the experience of adults dying to old patterns of life and rising from the waters of baptism as new creations. As for newborn babies, at first it was desired to wait until the following Easter, when they could be baptized, anointed with chrism, and given a taste of the Eucharist in association with adults. The Church was always willing to baptize adults in emergency situations outside the Easter timetable, and in time, since infancy itself was a life-threatening situation, the baptism of babies became commonplace.

As with the "emergency" adult baptisms, it was required that parents bring the child, as soon as health was recovered, to the bishop for the full menu of sacraments. The very real fear of death for infants thus created a situation in which the three sacraments drifted apart from each other, and away from their original, adult celebration at Easter. Today, at last, we know a great deal about how our practices evolved. This knowledge is reshaping how we celebrate Easter, how we receive adult faith, and how we structure the faith journey of children.

~James Field

KID'S CORNER

"To testify" means to declare that something is true. When he talked about Jesus, John the Baptist said, "Now I have seen and testified that he is the Son of God" (John 1:34). Look inside the dove shape and use yellow to color the letters that spell TESTIFIED. Remember, when Jesus comes into our lives we can testify to his great love for us!

The icon on the cover...

In this icon by an unknown author, Saint Agnes is shown gently holding a lamb, the traditional symbol associated with her name and a sign of her innocence and faithful witness to Christ, the Lamb of God. The gold background and halo signify God's eternal presence and uncreated light, while the red garment recalls her martyrdom and total self-gift. Written in the sacred iconographic tradition, the calm expression, stylized features, and lack of natural perspective invite the viewer into prayer, drawing the heart beyond the image to the heavenly reality it reveals.
