SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

10 MAY 2026

Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Today's readings describe that period when the apostles are getting used to acting on their own. Acts describes the spreading of the word to Samaria, curing the sick, and their reception of the Holy Spirit. First Peter reminds us that our response to evil must be to do good and to speak of our hope with gentleness and reverence. The psalm is joyous with praise for God and a reminder of God's saving of those held captive in Egypt long, long ago. John talks not only about the Father and Jesus but also another Advocate, who will remain even when Jesus leaves. The readings also contain the promise of continued love and comfort. The readings today reflect a time of transition, instability, and hope.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

There is a geography to the liturgy of baptism that distills the journey of faith. Each part of the liturgy is assigned to a distinct part of the church building. Baptism, whether of infants carried to church by their parents or of adults following the paschal candle into a darkened church at Easter, starts at the door. First, a threshold must be crossed and a new community of meaning and memory encountered for the first time. Then, the celebration moves to the place for God's Word. Next, as the litany of the saints is sung, there is a procession to the font. Finally, the movement is to the table, the altar of the Eucharist. There, newly baptized adults are brought to the sacred meal, or the parents of infants are blessed and reminded that their child will one day share fully in the table's banquet.

Many Catholic churches honor this geography by placing the font near the door, or at least small vessels with water. The doorway of our church is a place of memory, and a passageway to a new way of living.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Acts 8:5-8, 14-17

The people of Samaria accepted the word of God preached by Philip; they received the Holy Spirit.

Psalm — Psalm 66

Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

Second Reading — 1 Peter 3:15-18

Act with gentleness and reverence toward all, so that when you are maligned those who defame you will be the ones put to shame.

Gospel — John 14:15-21

I will not leave you orphans, but will come to you.

NOTICE REGARDING REPORTING SEXUAL ABUSE OF A MINOR

It is the policy of the Diocese of Scranton to report any allegation of sexual abuse of a minor to law enforcement. If you are a victim of sexual abuse committed by a priest, deacon, religious or lay employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Scranton, you are encouraged to immediately report the matter to law enforcement. If any priest, deacon, religious, lay employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Scranton has cause or reason to suspect that a minor has been subjected to any form of abuse, including child sexual abuse, the matter will be reported to law enforcement.

It is also the policy of the Diocese to adhere to all civil and state regulations. In accordance with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania's Child Protective Services Laws, reports of suspected child abuse should also be made immediately by phone to the 24-Hour Child Abuse hot-line (ChildLine) at 1-800-932-0313 or electronically at www.compass.state.pa.us/cwis. This end, the Diocese is equally committed to adhering to the norms of the Code of Canon Law and to upholding the tenets of the USCCB Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People, which includes supporting victims of sexual abuse in their pursuit of emotional and spiritual well-being.

Information regarding an allegation of sexual abuse of a minor should also be reported to the Victim Assistance Coordinator Mary Beth Pacuska at 570-862-7551.

The icon on the cover...

A serene and prayerful image of Our Lady of Fatima. The Blessed Mother is shown with a gentle gaze, her expression tender and attentive, as if listening to the prayers of those before her. Her hands are crossed over her radiant, encircled Immaculate Heart, a central message of the Fatima apparitions. Mary wears a traditional soft blue tunic beneath a light, gold-edged mantle. The gold background represents the glory of heaven, reminding us that this is a window into the divine, while the halo's delicate patterns reinforce her holiness.

The draped rosary highlights her call at Fatima to pray it daily for peace and conversion, serving as a spiritual invitation to the viewer.

The composition's simplicity focuses attention on Mary's heart and posture. Its quiet stillness naturally draws the viewer inward, making it well-suited for personal or communal devotion.

Living Stewardship Now

For one week, make a daily list of what you give your time to. Be completely honest. Where is Christ on your list? Where is your parish? Where is your community? What are the time-wasters you want to avoid?
