SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

17 MAY 2026

I believe that I shall see the good things of the Lord in the land of the living.

SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

There is a simple, detailed intimacy in our reading from Acts today. Instead of just saying “the disciples returned to Jerusalem,” each one is listed by name, along with Mary, some other women, and some relatives. The absence of Judas is painfully obvious. In contemporary terms, we might think of this as Jesus’ “entourage” or “posse.” This was the community devoted to prayer. Psalm 27 is called a “womb to tomb” scripture, as it is commonly used for baptisms and funerals. How appropriate it is as we hear the next chapter in God’s plan. First Peter foreshadows the pain and suffering that these individuals will undergo for the sake of Christ as they continue to glorify God. This echoes the language of the Gospel, where Jesus speaks of glorifying God and himself being glorified as he prays for these followers who are now left in the world to carry out the message and the vision.

FATHER, THE HOUR HAS COME.
GIVE GLORY TO YOUR SON.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In the Easter season until now, we have heard accounts of the Risen Lord’s appearances to his disciples, sometimes individually, but most often when they are assembled together, and very often at meals. Now they are faced with the mystery of the Lord’s disappearance from their sight, coupled with a deepening awareness of his constant presence.

We recall the days when the church took shape from the quality of relationships forged among the first disciples through their following of Christ. From then on, they are meant to be the sign of Christ’s presence in the world. As we, the baptized, gather week by week, we too are shaped into a sacrament of God’s justice for the world. Like the first disciples, we too are “works in progress,” unfinished works of art. Many of us are splashed with water at the beginning of Mass in this season, an effective and refreshing wake-up call for us to engage ever more fully with our baptism. We are nearing the end of ninety days of renewal. Lent and Easter are drawing to a rousing close. Has Christ “Eastered” in you yet?

The icon on the cover...

Christ the High Priest was written by Georgi Chimev. Christ is shown vested as the eternal High Priest, blessing with His right hand and holding the Gospel in His left. The words "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you" recall Christ's farewell discourse to His disciples and the promise of His abiding presence.

As we celebrate the Seventh Sunday of Easter, this icon invites us to reflect on the risen Lord who ascended to the Father yet continues to intercede for His Church. In the days between the Ascension and Pentecost, the faithful are called to remain prayerful and united with the Apostles, trusting in the peace and guidance Christ continues to offer His people. The rich vestments and radiant gold background emphasize His divine glory and eternal priesthood, reminding us that Christ remains both our sacrifice and our shepherd.

Living Stewardship Now

"If the only prayer you said in your whole life was, 'thank you,' that would suffice."

~Meister Eckhart (c. 1260–c. 1328),
German theologian and mystic
