THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

28 JUNE 2026

Forever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Our readings today could be seen as a simple recipe for right living. In the Hebrew Bible, hospitality is regarded as one of the highest virtues. Conditions were harsh, and when people received guests or strangers, they washed their feet, provided a meal, and offered shelter if they could. In Second Kings, a woman's generosity is rewarded with the prospect of a child. In Romans we are called to recognize our baptism in Christ. We are called to be "dead to sin, and living in Christ Jesus." In the Gospel passage from Saint Luke, Jesus bids us to take up our cross, and to receive others as if we were receiving Christ. Put them together, and all of them are a call to see the holy, to see God in others, and to live our lives in Christ.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Confirmation is complicated, at least in its history. It arose in response to real problems deeply felt, not the least of which was the desire of the bishop to minister to all who were baptized. But it also has to do with the early crisis of how to deal with persons baptized by congregations that had broken bonds with the greater church: heretics. People reasoned that no matter how wrong-headed the minister might be, Christ would always work in the waters of baptism. No matter what, God would sweep aside all human obstacles to claim the new life in the water. They were not so sure about the ability of someone who had broken with the church to confer the Spirit. By the fifth century, already-baptized persons coming into the church were anointed with chrism but not rebaptized. This anointing with myron or chrism was seen as an act of reconciliation by the church, and a seal upon the commitments vowed by the newcomer. Today, we preserve this ancient practice by never "rebaptizing" Christians who have been baptized in water in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. We affirm the candidates' baptismal dignity, and we celebrate confirmation at their first reception of the Eucharist.

Little Bethlehem Christians is a group of 170 Christian families who live in Bethlehem, the Holy Land, who make their living as wood carvers. Originally introduced by the Crusaders, the tradition of olive wood carving in the Holy Land has been handed down from father to son since the 12th century.

The Little Bethlehem Christians will be at St. John Neumann on July 4–5, St. Ann's on July 5, and St. Vincent de Paul on July 18–19, displaying a collection of beautifully hand-carved olive wood religious items after all Masses. Proceeds from the sale of these items help support Christian families living in the land of Christ.

Sacred Bonds, Shared Hopes

The Diocese of Scranton invites you to be a part of an historic multi-faith event.

"Imagine rooms full of people from multiple faiths enjoying respectful dialogue, food and fellowship; gatherings to consider the meaning and blessing of our country's founding.

We can create this together: a once-in-a-generation opportunity for neighbors to meet neighbors, a chance to regain unity through conversation about some of America's most inspiring words ...

... Our work centers on some of America's sacred texts — The Declaration of Independence, Emma Lazarus's The New Colossus (poem written on the Statue of Liberty), America the Beautiful, and Frederick Douglass's address, What to the Slave is the Fourth of July?

KID'S CORNER

A woman from Shunem gave Elisha a place to eat and sleep when he was in town. She told her husband to set aside a room on the roof for this friend. That way he could stay with them any time. The woman wanted to put four things in the room. Circle them on the left. Later Elisha promised that in a year she would have something. Circle that on the right. (You can read the story in your Bible in 2 Kings 4:8-17.)

NOTICE REGARDING REPORTING SEXUAL ABUSE OF A MINOR

It is the policy of the Diocese of Scranton to report any allegation of sexual abuse of a minor to law enforcement. If you are a victim of sexual abuse committed by a priest, deacon, religious or lay employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Scranton, you are encouraged to immediately report the matter to law enforcement. If any priest, deacon, religious, lay employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Scranton has cause or reason to suspect that a minor has been subjected to any form of abuse, including child sexual abuse, the matter will be reported to law enforcement.

It is also the policy of the Diocese to adhere to all civil and state regulations. In accordance with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania's Child Protective Services Laws, reports of suspected child abuse should also be made immediately by phone to the 24-Hour Child Abuse hot-line (ChildLine) at 1-800-932-0313 or electronically at www.compass.state.pa.us/cwis. This end, the Diocese is equally committed to adhering to the norms of the Code of Canon Law and to upholding the tenets of the USCCB Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People, which includes supporting victims of sexual abuse in their pursuit of emotional and spiritual well-being.

Information regarding an allegation of sexual abuse of a minor should also be reported to the Victim Assistance Coordinator Mary Beth Pacuska at 570-862-7551.

The icon on the cover...

...depicts Saints Peter and Paul, the two great pillars of the Church, embracing one another in a gesture of peace, unity, and brotherly love. Though very different in background and personality, both were chosen by Christ to proclaim the Gospel and build up His Church. Peter, the humble fisherman, was entrusted with the keys of the Kingdom, while Paul, the former persecutor, became the great missionary to the nations. Their embrace reminds us that the Church is strengthened when diverse gifts are united in faith and charity. The golden background signifies the glory of heaven, where the Apostles now share in Christ's victory. Celebrated together on June 29, Saints Peter and Paul inspire us to remain steadfast in faith and courageous in sharing the Good News.

Living Stewardship Now

God created you, gave you life, and redeemed you from sin and death.

God loves you without limit.

Pray in joy and thanksgiving.
