FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

5 JULY 2026

I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Humility is a virtue in short supply in today's world. And yet our reading from the prophet Zechariah describes Israel's coming king, in whom we Christians see Jesus, as humble, riding on a colt, the foal of an ass. No great procession for our Lord and God, for he comes not on a golden chariot with banners and a great procession of soldiers and riches, but on a humble beast of burden. What a contrast to our world of designer clothes and cars; of mega-mansions and architectural embellishments. Humility is not bragging about our worldly goods or our accomplishments. Neither is it the false humility of denying that what we do well is "nothing." It is the acknowledgment of our faults and our successes, with a humble "thank you" to compliment or criticism.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

With the Reformation, some early Protestants, including the "Anabaptists," rejected infant baptism in favor of "believer's baptism." Against Orthodox and Catholic practice, which favored baptism as soon as possible for a newborn, these movements desired that the candidate for baptism speak for him- or herself at a mature age, not through godparents as an infant. Today, it is clear that they were rejecting a very ancient practice (even as early as the second century) of baptizing children of all ages. Children came first in ancient baptismal ceremonies, and someone would speak for them. Gregory of Nazianzen wanted to delay the baptism of children to three years of age, since at that age they could retain at least some impression of the liturgy. He made an exception for the very ill, who were to be baptized ahead of the annual Easter baptism. That means that infants and children were normally baptized together with adults, and that everyone received confirmation and the Eucharist.

The tone of the early bishops' writings is generous and compassionate, and seeks to build up the Eucharistic assembly by widely celebrating the gift of the Holy Spirit. If a priest celebrated baptism, then the gift of the Spirit was postponed for the bishop, but with no regard for the person's age. So, until the fifth century, confirmation was for infants, too.

~James Field

Faith 2505 ~ July 13, 7:00pm

Temple Hesed, 1 Knox Road, Scranton

All are welcome to attend!

The Diocese of Scranton invites you to be a part of an historic multi-faith event.

"Imagine rooms full of people from multiple faiths enjoying respectful dialogue, food and fellowship; gatherings to consider the meaning and blessing of our country's founding.

We can create this together: a once-in-a-generation opportunity for neighbors to meet neighbors, a chance to regain unity through conversation about some of America's most inspiring words ...

... Our work centers on some of America's sacred texts — The Declaration of Independence, Emma Lazarus's The New Colossus (poem written on the Statue of Liberty), America the Beautiful, and Frederick Douglass's address, What to the Slave is the Fourth of July?

NOTICE REGARDING REPORTING SEXUAL ABUSE OF A MINOR

It is the policy of the Diocese of Scranton to report any allegation of sexual abuse of a minor to law enforcement. If you are a victim of sexual abuse committed by a priest, deacon, religious or lay employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Scranton, you are encouraged to immediately report the matter to law enforcement. If any priest, deacon, religious, lay employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Scranton has cause or reason to suspect that a minor has been subjected to any form of abuse, including child sexual abuse, the matter will be reported to law enforcement.

It is also the policy of the Diocese to adhere to all civil and state regulations. In accordance with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania's Child Protective Services Laws, reports of suspected child abuse should also be made immediately by phone to the 24-Hour Child Abuse hot-line (ChildLine) at 1-800-932-0313 or electronically at www.compass.state.pa.us/cwis. This end, the Diocese is equally committed to adhering to the norms of the Code of Canon Law and to upholding the tenets of the USCCB Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People, which includes supporting victims of sexual abuse in their pursuit of emotional and spiritual well-being.

The icon on the cover...

Portrays Saint Benedict of Nursia (c. 480–547), the father of Western monasticism and founder of the Benedictine Order. He is shown holding the Holy Rule, the guide for monastic life built upon prayer, work, humility, and obedience to God. His abbot's staff symbolizes his role as a spiritual shepherd and leader of countless monks. At his side, the raven recalls the tradition that it carried away poisoned bread, saving Benedict's life through God's providence. The golden halo reflects his holiness, while the serene expression invites quiet contemplation and trust in the Lord. Saint Benedict's enduring motto, Ora et Labora—"Pray and Work"—continues to inspire Christians to seek holiness through faithful prayer, meaningful labor, hospitality, and steadfast devotion in everyday life.
