

My name is Rachel Langenohl. I first attended CEW three years ago. And I am here today to invite you to our upcoming CEW weekends.

You may be wondering, is CEW for you?

If you feel the world has taken your attention away from the faith that you know exists deep in your heart, CEW is for you.

If you feel your faith is at the center of your life, but you want it to grow even deeper, CEW is for you.

If you believe in everything we hear at church and in our religious studies but have a hard time actually putting it into practice, CEW is for you.

If you need to desperately carve out some down time, some quiet time, some reflective time, CEW is for you.

If you are feeling indifferent or even angry with God, CEW is for you.

For me, CEW brought about great healing and forgiveness for a decades old hurt. And it changed me. I am a better wife, mother and person because of it.

I can honestly say I hope every single one of you attends CEW. Because I want you to experience the great gift that it brings. I once described it as “the closest thing to heaven that I will experience here on earth.”

Thank you.
