

Mrs. Prideaux's Weekly Newsletter for the Week of October 4th-6th, 2021

Reader's Workshop: The students will learn the procedures for buddy reading. The students will also understand the importance of fluency.

Math Workshop: The students will review addition strategies.

Writer's Workshop: Our writer's will understand that good writers should have a goal in mind before they write.

Religion: This week we will reflect on the lives of Saint Therese and St. Faustina.

Social Studies: The class is learning how to be good citizens. In this week's lessons, we will focus on being a good listener and making good choices.

Word Work: The students will recognize CVC patterned words and review the short vowels a, e, and i.