

Mrs. Prideaux's Weekly Newsletter for the Week of December 15-19th, 2025

Reader's Workshop: The students will build their comprehension by focusing on sequencing, story maps, character analysis, and identifying new vocabulary. This week we will be reading "The Crippled Lamb" by Max Lucado.

Math Workshop: The students will be adding numbers within ten using the strategy of counting on.

Writer's Workshop: The class will be learning how to add detail to their writing and illustrations.

Religion: The students will learn about the story of Joseph in the Old Testament.

Social Studies: The students will learn about Christmas Around the World.

Word Work: The students will study final consonant blends.

Have a great weekend!
