

December NEWSLETTER

Week of: 12/8-12/12

A Note From The Teacher

All stubs and payments (cash or checks payable to St. John the Evangelist School) were to be returned to the school office. If you have money and stubs to turn in, please put in an envelope labeled "Calendar Raffle" and your family name and turn in as soon as possible. If you have unsold calendars please return them to the school office as soon as possible so they may be sold by others. If you have more requests for calendars, please stop in the school office to purchase what you need. Calendars will be available to purchase in the school office until December 18 or until all calendars have been sold.

Reminders

We will have our class Christmas party next Friday, December 19. Please sign up if you are able to contribute something to the party. Our Christmas break will begin after school on December 19, and we will return to school on Monday, January 5.

What We Are Learning

This week, we read two texts: "Thank You, M'am" by Langston Hughes and a play version of A Christmas Carol. We identified story elements and analyzed how they interact within the texts. We had some extra music practices for the Christmas concert and continued to work toward our December reading goals, which must be met by next Friday!
