A Note From The Teacher

Only 29% of the class met their reading goal for September. One of my missions as a teacher is to help students develop the habit of reading for pleasure. 20 minutes a day is where I would love for each student to start. Check out this handout from educator Brian Tolentino to learn more. On your student's Friday folder slip, write what the author said about five years of reading...your child will be entered into a drawing for a free book!

There will be no school tomorrow (Friday, October 3) due to teacher in-service. Please join us for the All School Rosary at 10 am in church on Thursday, October 9. This will be followed by an 11 am dismissal, conferences, and the Book Fair.

What We Are Learning

This week, students had two class discussions about the novel Seedfolks in preparation for a graded discussion on Monday.

Seventh grade students and their K4 buddies will be leading our Monday morning prayer service on October 6. You are welcome to join us at 7:45 in the gym if you are able! We used some of our art time to prepare posters for the prayer service.

Live a life that reflects God's love. ~Romans 12:10
