A Note From Ms. Heise

This week explored a few of my favorite folktales. We read the story of the three bears, the three goats, and the three pigs. Good things come in threes, right? Each of these stories had a different version with a new twist. So fun comparing the stories and finding out what parts of the stories were similar and what parts were different. We also had fun making projects to match!

Have a great weekend!

A Peek At What We Are Learning

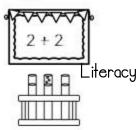

Weekly Focus
Wall

Letter: A

Number: Reviewed numbers 1-18

This week we continued working on creating patterns and began talking about long/short and more/less. We also continue counting objects to various numbers up to 10. We did a couple of fun activities with our folktale stories. First, we did a Goldilocks and the three bears order by size project and then we did a three Billy Goats Gruff sequencing activity where the kiddos had to put the littlest goat first, the middle goat second, and the big goat third. They did a great job!

This week we learned the letter A, reviewed all previously learned letters, and practiced clapping the syllables in words. Each day we review the letters and sounds a different way. Sometimes they are given an uppercase letter and have to find the matching lowercase and sometimes they are given a letter and need to find a picture that has a beginning sound to match a letter. We reviewed finger space in between words, which lets us know when one word ends and another begins. Some books we read this week: "Goldilocks and the Three Bears," "The Three Billy Goats Gruff," "The Three Billy Goats Fluff," "The Three Little Pigs," and "The True Story of the 3 Little Pigs."

This week we continued talking about the rules the parents and other adults give us. These rules keep us safe, healthy, and polite. We briefly talked about the 10 Commandments and even made a book with each of the commandments.

Reminders

During Lent this year we are collecting different supplies to donate to the Milwaukee Women's Center and So journer Family Peace Center. Please check out the Thursday Newsletter to see what we are collecting each week. Thank you!
