I'd like to begin by saying it is an honor and a privilege to be an instructor at St. John the Evangelist School! My husband, David Carlton, is the Instruments Music Instructor at Eastbrook Academy. We have three children and two grandchildren.

I have a Bachelor's Degree in Early Childhood Education from UW-Milwaukee and a Master's Degree in Reading and Language Arts from Cardinal Stritch University.

I have 14 years experience as a classroom teacher in grades 3-5. The last 10 years, I have been working as a Master Instructor at Cardinal Stritch University tutoring children in grades K-12 in reading. Four of those 10 years I also tutored MPS students through the GEAR-UP Programs at Vincent and James Madison High Schools. I also tutor students privately.

My teaching philosophy is that all students can learn to read. It may not be at the same pace as others, or at the same level, but given the proper instruction guidance, and learning environment, each child/person can be taught to read and comprehend.

The learning environment and staff at SJE exhibits these important elements. I am blessed to be part of the SJE community.
