What is a Charismatic Prayer Meeting?

A charismatic prayer meeting consists of a group of people from varying backgrounds who meet regularly in an atmosphere of love and support for one another in an effort to grow in the knowledge and love of God, and to show this love in their attitude to their neighbor.

Each prayer meeting is open to anyone who wants to come. It is characterized by expressive, joyful praise, an openness to the spiritual gifts including prophecy and healing, and an expectancy that God will speak and work in power within the meeting. Music is an important element, helping to lift the hearts of those present. There are also talks, testimonies and intercessory prayer, and prayer-ministry is always available.

Join us on Wednesday evenings in the Magnificat room at the front of the school at 7:30 p.m. Whether you can come every week or once a month, you are welcome. We will continue our weekly meetings during the summer. See you there!

Reflections from the Gloria Dei Choir

*The Lord bless you and keep you:
The Lord make his face to shine upon you
And be gracious unto you.
The Lord lift up the light of his countenance upon you,
And give you peace.*

Today, we celebrate Pentecost, the birthday of the church and the final Sunday of the Easter season. This is also the last Sunday the Gloria Dei Choir will be singing before our Summer break (until we return on September 15). As our prelude music this morning, "The Lord Bless You and Keep You" by John Rutter (b. 1945) ties into all these occasions, marking an ending and a beginning. The resurrected Christ says "Peace be with you" twice in today's Gospel as he appears to them once more, blesses them, imparts the Holy Spirit upon them, and sends them out into the world. We also sing this as a prayer of blessing for those who are being confirmed at today's 9:30 a.m. Mass.

Our anthem for the Presentation of the Gifts, "Veni, Sancte Spiritus," is an excerpt of today's Sequence, composed by Vicente Chavarria, whose version of "O, Clap Your Hands" we also heard last week. This is a simple arrangement of the text, combining the Latin and English translations of the original chant:

*Veni, Sancte Spiritus, Come, Holy Spirit:
Light in us God's holy fire, light in us His fire.
Come, Holy Spirit, and send to us from heaven
Rays of your holy light. Veni, Sancte Spiritus.
Wash away the impurities; refresh us with the spring of life,
Heal what has been wounded, O everlasting joy.
You are my great Comforter, sweet hospice for my soul,
Sweet refuge from darkness. Veni, Sancte Spiritus.
Amen, alleluia.*

In today's first reading, we hear of the descent of the Holy Spirit as tongues of fire upon the disciples.

We pray for that same fire and the spiritual gifts of the Spirit, of which St. Paul tells us there are many.

Our final anthem of the season and for Pentecost is "Hallelujah, Amen" from the oratorio Judas Maccabaeus by George Frideric Handel (1685-1759), which is considered Handel's other Hallelujah chorus (we began the Easter Season with his best-known Hallelujah chorus from The Messiah). Easter is a time of "Hallelujah" and rejoicing, and we close the Easter season singing "Rejoice, O Judah, in songs divine". This is also the finale of Handel's oratorio, celebrating victory for the people of God, just as we celebrate the victory of Christ's triumph over death and the coming of the Holy Spirit in this final Easter celebration. The music begins like the "strong driving wind" from the first reading, which filled the house where the disciples were when they received the Holy Spirit. The whirlwind of music begins in the lowest voices and rises, making its way through the choir as it adds each voice part from the lowest to the highest, just as that great wind filled the house and imparted every disciple present with the Holy Spirit.

The Gloria Dei Choir wants to sincerely thank Fr. Ed and all of you for your support, and we look forward to returning September 15 to continue in the service of the Lord.

With Gratitude and Blessings,
Lorraine Joy Welling,
Director, Gloria Dei Choir
