NEW at St. Paul Mission Circle Gift Shop

Tote bags, pillows and table runners with the beautiful image of Our Lady of Guadalupe.

New Book Titles:

The Seven Storey Mountain by Thomas Merton is one of the most famous books ever written about a man's search for faith and peace and has been recognized as one of the most influential works of our time. It is the spiritual autobiography of a man who withdrew from the world only after he had fully immersed himself in it.

Sadhana: A Way to God by Anthony de Mello responds to a very real hunger for self-awareness and holistic living. It consists of a series of spiritual exercises for entering the contemplative state—blending psychology, spiritual therapy, and practices from both Eastern and Western traditions.

The Spirituality of the Second Vatican Council by Gerald O'Collins describes and develops the council's call: cultivating a sense of the pervasive presence of Christ, being constantly fed and led by the Scriptures, and pursuing a Christ-centered existence that hears the cry of those who suffer and desperately need our help.

Thank you for supporting our Missionaries by shopping in our gift shop, located inside the northeast entrance of the church. We're open before and after weekend Masses.

What is a Charismatic Prayer Meeting?

A charismatic prayer meeting consists of a group of people from varying backgrounds who meet regularly in an atmosphere of love and support for one another in an effort to grow in the knowledge and love of God, and to show this love in their attitude to their neighbor.

Each prayer meeting is open to anyone who wants to come. It is characterized by expressive, joyful praise, an openness to the spiritual gifts including prophecy and healing, and an expectancy that God will speak and work in power within the meeting. Music is an important element, helping to lift the hearts of those present. There are also talks, testimonies and intercessory prayer, and prayer ministry is always available.

Join us on Wednesday evenings at 7:30 p.m. in one of the classrooms of the school. Whether you can come every week or once a month, you are welcome. See you there!

For more information, please call Joan LaGuardia at (562) 697-6331.

Parish Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament has a long history in the Diocese of Orange. Building on the foundation of that practice, the Holy Hour will provide a focused opportunity for all the faithful to join in a beautiful time of deep communion with Jesus, in time of trial and in joy, to be with Him in silence and in communal prayer.

Reflections from the Gloria Dei Choir

Even before we call on your name, to ask You, O God,
When we seek for the words to glorify You,

You hear our prayer;
Unceasing love, O unceasing love, surpassing all we know.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.
Even with darkness sealing us in, we breathe Your name,
And through all the days that follow so fast,
we trust in You;

Endless Your grace, O endless Your grace, beyond all mortal dream.

Both now and for ever, And unto ages and ages. Amen.

Text by Michael Dennis Browne

Composed by Stephen Paulus (1949-2014), Pilgrim's Hymn is a pure and heartfelt prayer of faith and trust, one that glorifies God and asks for guidance along the journey, even when surrounded by sin, darkness, and turmoil. In today's gospel, we see a sinner who wants to be renewed by seeking Jesus, to the point of climbing a tree to be able to see the Lord amidst the surrounding crowd. Jesus shows him grace and love, saying, "The Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost." The composer of this meditative a cappella piece, Stephen Paulus, was the co-founder of the American Composers forum in 1974, and was a member of the ASCAP Board of Directors for over 20 years before he died tragically in 2014 at the age of 65. He wrote 450 pieces of music in his lifetime; 150 are for choir, and this is possibly the most beautiful.

Our second piece is "Be Still My Soul," a choral arrangement by Mack Wilberg (b. 1955), a favorite anthem of his that brings memories of loved ones who have gone before us. It uses the famous tune, "Finlandia," by Jean Sibelius (1865-1957). The text of this song draws parallels with today's first and second readings, with the Lord's "imperishable spirit" that preserves all things, who "bring[s]" to fulfillment every good purpose and every effort of faith," and the Psalm, which acclaims: "The Lord is faithful in all his words, and holy in all his works."

*Be still, my soul: The Lord is on thy side;
With patience bear thy cross of grief or pain.
Leave to thy God to order and provide;
In ev'ry change he faithful will remain.
Be still, my soul: Thy best, thy heav'nly Friend
Thru thorny ways leads to a joyful end.
Be still, my soul: Thy God doth undertake
To guide the future as he has the past.
Thy hope, thy confidence let nothing shake;
All now mysterious shall be bright at last.
Be still, my soul: The waves and winds still know
His voice who ruled them while he dwelt below.
Be still, my soul: The hour is hast'ning on
When we shall be forever with the Lord,
When disappointment, grief, and fear are gone,
Sorrow forgot, love's purest joys restored.
Be still, my soul: When change and tears are past,
All safe and blessed we shall meet at last.*

—Lorraine Joy Welling, Director
Gloria Dei Choir
