LA FIESTA
OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE

¡Gracias a Todos por la gran Fiesta!

La Fiesta 2018 fue otro gran éxito gracias a todos ustedes! El clima estuvo perfecto con público llegando constantemente a disfrutar de la gran variedad de comidas caseras, postres, los juegos, diversas actividades, ventas artesanales y el entretenimiento durante todo el día. Tuvimos de todo! desde dinosaurios, reptiles y cabras hasta un camión de juegos y mini-carros convertibles. Agradecemos a todos los feligreses y amigos de NSDG que ayudaron de ALGUNA forma, ya sea comprando boletos para la rifa, donando premios, artículos, bebidas, pasteles y galletas, o su tiempo trabajando uno o dos turnos y/o patrocinando un puesto.

Toda esta diversión no hubiese sido posible de no ser por nuestro dedicado equipo de La Fiesta dirigido por nuestro energético líder Scott Miller! El y su equipo fueron apoyados por voluntarios de la parroquia, de la escuela y del programa de formación de fe, quienes dieron testimonio de lo que es poner en uso nuestro tiempo y talentos de la mejor manera. A todos los que nos acompañaron el Domingo a celebrar ésta bella tradición, ¡gracias por los gratos recuerdos de La Fiesta 2018!

—Padre Ed

Thanks to All for a Great La Fiesta!!

La Fiesta 2018 was another great success! The weather was beautiful and the crowds were steady, arriving to enjoy the great variety of home-cooked foods, wonderful homemade desserts, the games, activities, craft vendors, and all-day entertainment. We had everything from dinosaurs, reptiles and goats, to a gaming truck, convertible fun-cars, and a cantina with televisions tuned to important sporting events. Thanks to all parishioners and friends of OLG who helped in ANY way: purchasing raffle tickets, donating prizes, supplies and beverages, baking delicious cakes and cookies, volunteering your time to work a shift or two, and/or sponsoring a booth.

All of this fun and enjoyment would not have been possible were it not for a dedicated La Fiesta team led by our energetic leader, Scott Miller! He and his team were supported by volunteers from the parish at large, the parish school, and the faith formation program who gave witness to stewardship of time and talent at its best. To all who joined with us on Sunday to celebrate a great tradition, thank you for the wonderful memories of La Fiesta 2018!

—Fr. Ed

Catholic in Recovery is coming to Our Lady of Guadalupe, La Habra.

Catholic in Recovery meetings are designed to offer spiritual formation centered around our addictions, ailments, and unhealthy attachments (including alcoholism, drug addiction, pornography addiction, sex and relationship addiction, compulsive overeating and other food addictions, gambling addiction and more; i.e. TV, social media, internet etc., codependency and the impact on family, as well as general fear, control and anxiety issues). In addition, we are here to supplement one's personal recovery with a sacramental understanding of God's mercy using the traditions of the Catholic Church in conjunction with the Twelve Steps of Alcoholics Anonymous. Meeting format: Before open sharing begins, we will read through a reflection which ties together scripture from Sunday's readings, liturgical themes, and recovery principles. The sharing gives us the opportunity to share experience, strength, and hope.

Meetings will be on Monday evenings. For more information, including starting date, place and time, please email Celeste Dowling [c.dowling10@yahoo.com] or leave a message for her with the parish office.

Reflections from the Gloria De Choir

Today's readings are filled with longing. In the first reading from the book of Wisdom, we hear Solomon pray and plead for wisdom to be his. In the Psalm, the prayer for Wisdom continues, and to it is added prayers for love, pity, kindness, joy, recognition, and prosperity. Finally, in the Gospel, the rich young man longs for eternal life and asks Jesus what he must do to achieve it, and he is able to fulfill every commandment of God, but he cannot give up his possessions and goes away sad. The disciples reply, "Then who can be saved?" But Jesus responds, "All things are possible for God."

The first choral anthem presented today, "Sicut cervus" by Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina (c. 1525-1594), fits this theme of longing, taken from the first verse of Psalm 42:

As the deer longs for streams of water
So my soul longs for you, O God.

Palestrina's music achieved the highest point in the development of the polyphonic style during the Renaissance, while being able to communicate the text more clearly than any music that had been written before in that style. He was appointed the director of the Cappella Giulia, the choir of St. Peter's Basilica that sings for all the solemn Masses and functions of the Vatican not presided over by the Pope. It also serves as a preparatory school for the papal choir. He held this position for most of his career and wrote over 700 pieces of choral music for the church.

The second choral anthem we will present is "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" by Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750), which mirrors the readings in expressing mankind's longing for Christ, wisdom, and eternal life:

Jesu, joy of man's desiring,
Holy wisdom, love most bright,
Drawn by Thee, our souls aspiring,
Soar to uncreated light.
Word of God, our flesh that fashioned,
With the fire of life impassioned,
Striving still to truth unknown,
Soaring, dying, 'round Thy throne.

Whereas Palestrina typified and perfected music in the Renaissance, Bach typified, perfected, and even wrote the book on music of the Baroque Era. When he died, the Baroque era ended with him, and his many sons went on to establish the foundation for the new era of music-making that followed in the Classic Era. J.S. Bach was also extraordinarily prolific in his output of music, writing over 1,000 works (many of which had multiple movements) and at one point in his life was responsible for providing music for four churches in Leipzig at the same time. He wrote 58 cantatas each year, approximately one for each liturgy, when he was in Leipzig. "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" was part of one of these cantatas.

OLG Small Group on Divine Mercy

The essence of Saint Maximilian Kolbe's army for Mary Immaculate is "to be an instrument in her immaculate hands"—and that is a powerful statement. Join our OLG Small Group session on Divine Mercy as we reflect on Saint Maximilian Kolbe's devotion to Mary from the video presentation by Fr. Michael Gaitley, MIC, based on his best-selling book, The Second Greatest Story Every Told.

WHY IS IT
A man wakes up after sleeping under an ADVERTISED blanket on an ADVERTISED mattress and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas bathes in an ADVERTISED shower shaves with an ADVERTISED razor brushes his teeth with ADVERTISED toothpaste washes with ADVERTISED soap puts on ADVERTISED clothes drinks a cup of ADVERTISED coffee drives to work in an ADVERTISED car and then . . . .
refuses to ADVERTISE
believing it doesn't pay.
Later if business is poor
he ADVERTISES it for sale.
