BUSINESS FOR THIS EVENING:

CALENDAR CLUB: Council members said most parishioners are not in the habit of purchasing calendars in November. Liz will contact Marsha to let her know this, so the calendars can be put alongside of the script table if someone would like to buy one before December.

ARCHOMAHA UNITE is scheduled for June 8, 2019 and will be held at the CHI Center. Our focus tonight was to compile information for the diocese as they requested with the intention of creating a "Parish Path" to be used at this event. Each parish will have a 7' x 2' panel displaying highlights of their parish, giving interesting facts/photos pertaining to their parish, showing it's uniqueness. Abby is spearheading this project. Our job tonight was to bring ideas to the table showing the best of STM and what would draw others to our parish. After much brainstorming we answered all 7 questions. Fr. did return before the discussion ended and added his valued opinion and suggestions. Abby will send an email to the council with all the information we considered before she sends the formal write up to the Diocese.
