

Liturgical Living Initiative

A GUIDE FOR THE FAMILY AND THE INDIVIDUAL

November

PART 1: CELEBRATE

THE MONTH OF NOVEMBER IS A TIME TO CELEBRATE JESUS' CONQUERING DEATH WITH HIS RESURRECTION. WE SEARCH FOR WHAT IS ESSENTIAL TO LIVE WELL IN THE PRESENT.

PART 2: SACRIFICE

OFFER A SACRIFICE IN PREPARING YOUR THANKSGIVING MEAL AS WELL AS SACRIFICE OF THE EUCHARIST

What do you celebrate?

FEASTS & DEVOTIONS

1 NOVEMBER: ALL SAINTS

25 NOVEMBER: CHRIST THE KING

2 NOVEMBER: ALL SOULS

30 NOVEMBER: ST. ANDREW (fisherman)

23 NOVEMBER: CLEMENT I

What will you observe?

1. IDENTIFY

2. CHOOSE WHAT TO OBSERVE

SAINT GUIDES FOR YOUR CALENDAR

Consider those closest to you who have died. How have they been a witness of faith to you? How may you imitate them? How may you face life with Christ?

Journey with others

INVITE OTHERS FOR OTHER SEASONAL RITUALS

PRAYER For those who don't know Christ or the Communion of Saints

CUISINE clementine oranges, fish & chips

VISIT the cemetery and pray for the souls of the departed.

DECORATION skeletons, marigolds, & monarch butterflies honoring Dia de los Muertos, "Day of the Dead" when we celebrate life with God, even after death