SMKCS Families, Children learn by example. Research has proven that modeling behavior has long lasting effects. Role model the behavior you want to see from your kids. If you want your children to be helpful and giving, show generosity and volunteerism. If you want your children to follow Christ and be prayerful, regularly pray with them and for them, and take them to church. If you want your child to be a strong reader and a successful student, let them see you reading. Good or bad, our children will often imitate our behavior, so let's make a conscious effort to put our phones down and do something more constructive with our precious time. We have one shot to get this child-rearing thing right!

On that note, I hope to see you at Literacy Night on Monday evening. We ask that all families who have a child second grade or younger who are new to SMK since 2016 plan to join us. All families are welcome. Snacks will be served and fun activities for the kids are planned. Doors open at 6:15. Sessions will be 6:30 - 7:30 PM.

God bless,
Tracy Jansen

Important Information

- We appreciate all students being dropped off early enough for them to be in class by 8:30 a.m. and prepared for class to start when the bell rings. Unless your child is late and needs to be signed in at the office, he/she must be dropped off in drop off line at gym doors and not at the school office entrance. Thank you for cooperating and making our drop off procedure run smoothly.

- 2017/18 Yearbooks are available in the office while supplies last. They are $15.
- 2018/19 SMKCS Theme shirt order form is due Thursday, Aug. 23.

Students may wear these shirts on spiritwear days.
- We are in need of a few individuals to assist with Grandparent's Day prep. Please contact the school office or respond to this email if you are interested in lending a hand.

- It's time to plan fall decorating! Our first PTO fundraiser of the year has begun - mums are for sale! Remember to ask family and friends. Thanks to Jeff Beach for organizing this school fundraiser.

A big thank you to all of those who volunteered at the Knobsfest and those who attended. It was a huge success!

Childcare Notes

Friendship is abundant in childcare! We are excited to be making new friends and reuniting with old friends. We are working on our manners, rules and following directions. We welcome our parents to call or visit our room at any time.
Blessings, Childcare Staff
