✚ Baptism of the Lord ✚

Fr. Tom Farrell & Dcn. David Kowlaski

Trinity Lutheran Church

"The Lord will bless his people with peace." ~ Psalm 29

Semitic cultures of Israel's time used the imagery of raging waters to represent a primordial force of evil and chaos constantly threatening to destroy human life. But the Israelites had a different understanding: the waters were not primordial, God was. God's power sweeps over the waters in the opening lines of Genesis. God's power is sovereign over all forces, seen and unseen. This is the power which is revealed in the baptism and mission of Jesus(gospel). This is the power which brings people out of chaos to the peace of salvation (psalm refrain). And this is the power given us in our own baptism. How can we not shout "GLORY!" ~ Kathleen Harmon

I hope you all had a blessed and joy filled Christmas season with family and friends. The Baptism of our Lord officially ends the Christmas Season, but may you all continue to hold the birth of our Lord and his coming, close in your heart throughout the year.

" O God of all glory, your power is unfathomable; your wake, immense and fierce; your love, unconditional; you call, ever clear. Unleash within me the song of your Spirit, that I may forever sing of your greatness, not with shriek or shrill, but with the music of your unwavering justice. ~ Kathleen Harmon
