The St. Joseph Conference of the Society of St. Vincent DePaul Food Pantry plans to provide a Thanksgiving or Christmas meal for the approximately 200 families served each month. Extra food will be added to the food boxes distributed during the weeks spanning the Thanksgiving and Christmas period. The Pantry will provide whole chickens, turkeys, and other food. We ask the St. Joseph Parishioners to consider donating food during this period. Items needed are stuffing, canned yams, cranberry sauce, gravy or gravy mix, instant potatoes, canned hams and canned vegetables. The items can be left in the back area near the Church Ave. entrance or call John Riley (270-842-2757) for large donations. The St. Joseph SVDP Food Pantry volunteers are always grateful to our parishioners for their continued support.
