How to Fold an American Flag

The National Flag Foundation presents its own special flag folding ceremony, incorporating several of the virtues attributed to the colors of the Flag as specified in 1782 by Charles Thomson, then Secretary of Congress. The National Flag Foundation recommends that this ceremony be read prior to the actual folding of the 5' x 9-1/2' Casket Flag.

1. Fold the Flag in half lengthwise.

2. Repeat, fold in half lengthwise again, being careful that the blue field is on the outside.

3. As one person holds the Flag by the blue field, another makes a triangular fold in the opposite and continues to make triangular folds until the entire Flag is in a triangle.

4. Tuck the loose edge of the Flag into the pocket formed by the folds so that only the blue field and white stars are visible.

“Abortion is the murder of innocent unborn human beings,” Right to Life East Texas said in a Facebook post. “The Lilith Fund and other abortion-aiding organizations all take part in the murder of innocent unborn human beings.” The Lilith Fund for Reproductive Equity, based in the liberal enclave of Austin, Texas, filed a lawsuit against “anti-abortion extremist” Dickson and his organization on June 11, claiming their statements that abortion groups promote the murder of unborn babies amount to defamation.

Unlike the imaginary right to abortion cooked up by seven of nine Supreme Court justices in the Roe v. Wade decision, the First Amendment gives Dickson the right to free speech. A large portion of the American public agrees with his view that abortion is murder.

Yet far-left organizations like the Lilith Fund want to punish Dickson for expressing his deeply held opinion. This phenomenon is not unique to the abortion debate.

Many Americans, from a Student Senate president to a public school principal, have lost their positions because they dared to criticize another sacred cow of the left: the Black Lives Matter movement.

The fact that the far left has successfully pressured organizations and companies to subscribe to their worldviews also could provide the abortion group with a sense of encouragement.

The law suit by the pro abortion group may have to prove abortion is not taking the life of a human being.
