

Rite of Passage Planning Guide

Even the most simple rite of passage experience can have a powerful impact in your teen's life. Ask yourself the following questions to plan the best approach for your son or daughter.

ASSESS

- Is our relationship strong enough for the experience to feel authentic vs. forced?
- Does my child have other adults in his/her life who have had enough influence to participate in such an experience?
- Does my teen show signs he/she is willing to move toward adult responsibilities and attitudes?

If you answer no to any of these questions it might be better to plan a special dinner alone together to begin meaningful dialog rather than attempt the full rite of passage experience.

WHEN

- What day is best to make this event special? On a birthday? In conjunction with a holiday? As a special day of it's own?
- What date would work best for those who might need to travel to participate?

WHO

- What relatives should participate? (Grandparent? Respected aunt or uncle? Older brother or sister?)
- Is the child close to a pastor, youth minister, teacher or coach he/she respects?
- If you are not planning the event as a surprise, invite your teen to suggest who he/she would like to be included.

HOW

- Would my child prefer a formal event or casual experience?
- What would be a good setting for the event? The house? Grandparent's home? A favorite restaurant? The church? A park?
- What kind of fun activity would our child enjoy doing with the older men or women before the formal portion of the event? (For example, a teen boy might enjoy going to shooting range or golfing while a girl might prefer shopping or tennis.)

SAMPLE BLESSING PRAYER

The following is an example of a blessing prayer a parent might pray over his or her child during a rite of passage event to affirm the child and cast a vision for his/her future.

Dear Heavenly Father:

Thank you for the gift CHILD'S NAME is to me, to our family and to every person in this room. I give you praise for creating HIM/HER with such unique gifts.

- MENTION SPECIFIC EXAMPLES.

I am so proud of the young MAN/WOMAN CHILD'S NAME is becoming and I ask you to give CHILD'S NAME strength and grace as HE/SHE continues moving from the world of childhood into the joys and responsibilities of becoming a Godly MAN/WOMAN. In this moment we celebrate the life CHILD'S NAME has lived so far and the exciting road HE/SHE will travel into a special future.

- MENTION SPECIFIC GOALS/OPPORTUNITIES AHEAD

Lord, you know how much I love CHILD'S NAME. You know that I will do anything within my power to help HIM/HER reach HIS/HER God-given potential. But, unlike the years behind us, CHILD'S NAME is moving into the season of life in which HE/SHE must own more of HIS/HER own faith and character formation. Please guide CHILD'S NAME on that journey and continue to nurture within HIM/HER a passion for you and the wisdom to make wise choices.

Finally, I ask you to pour out your blessings on my SON/DAUGHTER'S future. I can't wait to see how you will use HIM/HER in coming days.

In the name of Christ our Lord, Amen.
