A Word from Fr. Rafal

We had a wonderful pilgrimage to Ozark. We saw Basilica in Saint Louis and cathedral in Jefferson City. I wish more people could go with us. It was a great experience. Please consider to go with us on our next trip. From today's Gospel we learned we need to serve others and wait for the Lord in our daily lives by seeing Jesus in our brothers and sisters. We should allow God to work through us. That way we become His disciples. God is so good to us. Don't close your heart for God's grace. I want to wish you a wonderful summer time. Get some rest and relax if you can.

God bless you.
Father Rafal Pyrchla

Our Pilgrimage to the Ozarks had the below group venturing around last weekend. A good time was had by all. Thank you to all the folks that planned, drove, and enjoyed this event!
