A message from Faith in Action

Support Our Homebound Seniors by Sharing the Love of Christ Jesus said, "I am the Bread of Life" (John 6:35). As Christ gave Himself fully for us, we are called to give of ourselves for others especially those who are most in need. Faith in Action of Macon County is seeking support to continue serving homebound seniors in our community. Through your generosity, seniors receive: * Rides to medical appointments and grocery shopping * Monthly grocery shopping * Friendly visits and phone calls * Craft projects at local senior living facility Please consider making a special offering to support this ministry. Your gift, no matter the size, becomes Christ's hands extended to those who often feel forgotten. Thank you for helping bring hope, dignity, and the love of Jesus to our seniors! Mark your envelope Faith in Action and we will get them to them.

The Knights of Columbus members are selling KC Vocation Raffle tickets. The profit from this goes to supporting our local seminarian: Joseph Tuttle. You can purchase 1 ticket for $5.00 or you can purchase an entire book (5 tickets) for $20.00. You can purchase tickets from any KC member. This annual raffle is for all KC Councils in Illinois.

On Sunday, November 2 and November 9, we plan to sell KC Vocation Raffle tickets in the Vestibule of OLHS after the 10:00 am Mass.

Please consider purchasing KC Vocation Raffle tickets and supporting this great cause.
