Attendees are invited to read the classic text BRAVE NEW WORLD by Aldous Huxley and join in a discussion about its themes in our current world.

The group will also offer an opportunity to understand the teachings of Catholicism in the light of the themes raised in the book.

About the Book: BRAVE NEW WORLD

is an easy to read and relatively short fiction novel written by Aldous Huxley in 1932. It has become famous for what at the time were futuristic social commentaries on serious issues facing the rapidly changing Western society. To read the book today is to be astonished at how much of what Huxley predicted through satire is actually coming true.
