

Conquering Coronavirus: How Faith Can Put Fears to Rest

A Must Read

While we cannot gather to conduct a Lunch & Learn, I just had to share this book with you. I've only read 2 chapters, and I am already in tears realizing how amazing God is in just an ordinary day.

The author is a national radio host on Catholic radio. She was impressed by her priest who gave a sermon back in March based on a reading from John's Gospel wherein Jesus heals a blind man, and the disciples ask Him who sinned, the blind man or his parents.

Fr. Rich Bartozek said: "The God we serve is not using the pandemic or any other crisis to zap us. He didn't cause it, but He allows it so we can help reveal Him to the world."

I highly recommend this book to affirm your faith and to help us reveal Christ to the world.

Jean Tierney

St. Joseph Catholic Church, Pastoral Care Director