About Goldie and Lorraine Buda

Lawrence and Goldie Buda moved to St. Paul Park in 1951. Lawrence was a WWII vet and was active with the Veteran's Club in St. Paul Park. He worked at Hamm's Brewery Co. Lawrence and Goldie loved to fish. It was not unusual to see them at the early Mass before they went to the lake. They also enjoyed entertaining so there were always relatives at the house for a get-together and especially at holiday time. Their three daughters Lorraine, Diane and Corine all graduated from Park High School. In addition to their daughters, Lawrence and Goldie had seven grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren. Lawrence died in 1966. Goldie then went to work at Deluxe Check. She also sponsored a seminary student who was ordained in 1971.

Goldie and her daughter Lorraine knitted many hats, mittens and scarves for the poor and for nursing homes each year at Christmas. They would start knitting after Christmas for the following year's distribution. Lorraine took care of her mother till her death in 1998.

Lorraine was born April 9, 1934. She attended the University of Minnesota. Lorraine was employed by the State of Minnesota at Miller Hospital. She loved to travel having visited states from Maine to Florida to Washington and also Mexico. She enjoyed being outside, tending to her vegetable garden, taking long walks and photography. Lorraine died August 15, 1999.

Both Goldie & Lorraine were very loving and giving people.
