Welcome!

Dear Friends in Christ,

Shortly after my arrival two years ago we began to work with a nonprofit group called Amazing Parish that exists solely to help Catholic Parishes become amazing. We’ve incorporated their pillars for successful Parishes throughout all of our efforts: a reliance on prayer and the Sacraments, a commitment to a healthy organization, a passion for evangelization and discipleship, and a wonderful and impactful Sunday experience. They call these pillars the “building blocks” that amazing Parishes are built upon. These pillars have also been incorporated into our Vision and Strategic Plan.

Over the last two years we have been focusing on our Sunday Experience at St. Ann and St. Joseph. Our first step was to evaluate all of our Mass times to ensure that we were offering a variety of options that would allow as many people as possible to attend Mass on the weekends. Our second step was to broaden our music offering with the Sunday evening Mass. We understand that everyone has strong feelings and preferences when it comes to music at Mass, and we are proud that we now offer a full breadth of musical options.

Our third step was to examine the homilies given each weekend. Following the guidance from Amazing Parish, we established Homily Feedback Teams for each of our Parishes. These generous individuals have agreed to evaluate the homily they hear each weekend at whichever Parish and Mass they attend. The method of evaluation comes from the POUR model—not poor—and seeks to ensure that all homilies are Passionate, Organized, Understandable, and Relatable. The individuals that make up these teams have done a great job responding and providing feedback for all weekend Masses. It is our hope that this form of anonymous and constructive feedback will help us provide everyone with homilies that truly touch hearts and minds.

Work is currently underway for our fourth and fifth steps which will be rolled out in the fall. The first is an initiative we’re calling “One Message” that will better connect the readings, music, and weekly message at all of our Masses. The second is a renewed effort at hospitality in our Parishes. We are excited for both these initiatives because we know they will not only help us to better grow in holiness, but they will ensure that we remain amazing Parishes!

As always, we can use your continued prayers for our efforts. Together, we know that our vision and mission will lead to a bright future. God bless!

Sincerely Yours in Christ,
Fr. Michael Roemmele, Pastor

Food for Thought

As Jesus continues his journey to Jerusalem, he is confronted by a scholar of the law who wants to test him. In the Gospels of Mark and Matthew, Jesus is asked about the greatest commandment. Here, in Luke’s Gospel, the lawyer asks what we must do to inherit eternal life. In the other two Gospels, Jesus answers the question by quoting Deuteronomy 6:5, on loving God with all your heart, and Leviticus 19:18, on loving your neighbor. Here Jesus asks the expert to answer this question, “What is written in the law?” The man is caught and responds with Deuteronomy 6:5. This verse is one of the most important prayers in Judaism, and it was said twice a day in Jesus’ time. Love of God and love of neighbor are what is required for eternal life. Jesus’ response is simple, “Do this and you will live.”

Having been shown up by Jesus, the lawyer tries another question: Who is my neighbor whom I must love like myself? In the society of Jesus’ time, with its distinctions between Jews and Gentiles, men and women, clean and unclean, this was a trick question. Jesus responds with one of the most beautiful of all the parables, the Good Samaritan. It is found only in Luke’s Gospel.

The road from Jerusalem to Jericho descends 3,300 feet in just 17 miles. Its narrow passes and rocky terrain made it an easy place for bandits to wait for travelers. The traveler in this parable is identified only as “a certain man.” Luke uses this phrase in many of his parables so that the audience, Jew or Gentile, could identify with the man. After the attack, the man is left for dead, naked and bleeding on the side of the road. A priest comes along, but rather than helping, as one might expect, he moves to the other side of the road. Another religious person comes along, a Levite who assists in the Temple. His reaction is the same as the priest’s. Both of them choose to not even find out if the man is alive. A third person comes along. The listeners would probably expect him to be an Israelite. This would make the parable a criticism of the religious leadership. Instead, he is a Samaritan, an Israelite’s most hated neighbor. Samaritans were descendants of Jews from the northern part of the country, who had intermarried with Gentiles and did not worship in Jerusalem. The Samaritan not only goes over to the injured man but cleans his wounds, puts him on his own animal, takes him to an inn to recover, and promises to pay all his expenses. The hated enemy is the compassionate neighbor in this parable.

Jesus has demolished all boundary expectations. It is not social definitions such as class, religion, gender, or ethnicity that determines who is our neighbor. A neighbor is a person who acts with compassion toward another. The point becomes not who deserves to be loved as I love myself, but that I become a person who treats everyone with compassion.

When Jesus asks the lawyer who was the neighbor in the story, the lawyer can’t bring himself to say it was the Samaritan. All he says is that it was “the one who treated him with mercy.” Jesus’ response was similar to that of the first discussion: “Go and do likewise.” The lawyer, and we, know what is right. The key is to do it.

Kay Tischler

This week we feature Kay Tischler. Kay is a lifelong member of St. Joseph’s. She was married to Gene Courtney for 45+ years. Her children are Kathleen (deceased) (Ron) Darr, Beth (Casey) VanFleet, Peggy Courtney, and Jennifer (Joe) Ziebold. She is married to Burk Tischler for 10+ years and is stepmom to Kent (Mindy) Tischler and Dave (Beth) Tischler. Between them they have twelve grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Kay is a member of the St. Joseph High School Class of 1956 and is a member of the Blessed Sacrament Confraternity, Rosary Society, and Croghan Street Garden Club. She also helps with Funeral Luncheons and church cleaning, and was a former Eucharistic Minister and choir member, and worked with the Engaged Couples Day couples for 14 years. Kay, we thank you for all you have done, and continue to do for our Parish!

The Widow/Widowers Group will be meeting on Saturday, July 27 at 5:00 p.m. at Peking Restaurant for dinner. If you would like to join them, please call 419.334.2638 by Wednesday, July 24. Thank you!

The Parishioners of St. Ann’s and St. Joseph’s would like to thank all the generous gardeners, weeders, and the people who water the landscaping of our two Parishes. Thank you!!!

A Family Perspective-Children learn by watching us. Do they see you helping others like the Good Samaritan, or do they see you avoiding others like the Levite in today’s gospel. Worry more about what your children see in YOUR LIFE than what they see on TV.

Tony Mierzejewski is the new Maintenance/Custodian man for St. Ann’s and St. Joseph’s. Anthony resides in Woodville, Ohio and has a home remodel business and was a gym teacher. Anthony is married to Jaimi and they have a son, Logan, and a daughter, Alayna. Help us make Anthony feel welcome by introducing yourself to him when you see his smiling face around each campus.

We need your help! Our vision for the St. Ann/St. Joseph Fair Booth is expanding. We would like to include two wooden standup cutouts that our visitors can put their faces in for photographs – one for the children and one for adults. If you are handy with wood projects or have artistic talent, we would love to hear from you! Please call the Parish Office at 419.332.7472 or 419.334.2638, or contact Annette Mercer, Steve Neiling, or Pat Heyman if you are interested in helping with this project. We will get everyone together at a later date to finalize plans and start sketching, designing, sawing, and painting. Thank you!!!

We Need Your Help!

Fair time is quickly approaching and we are excited that our Parishes will once again have a booth. The County Fair will take place August 20-25 and we need help from parishioners to take a shift and work the booth. To do this, all we need is a commitment that you will show up and represent Christ to all people - simple enough!

Please call your Parish Office with any questions or to sign up!
