Welcome!

Dear Friends in Christ,

A graphic was recently posted on our Facebook page (see below) that said “Church is not something you go to, it’s a family you belong to.” This post garnered a lot of positive responses online and has come up in numerous conversations since it first showed up. I’ve been thinking a lot about it, and I think there is definitely some truth in this quote. Think about it with me.

Our Church was founded during tumultuous times, without a formal Church building, using ordinary sinful people like you and me. This new “family” had a clear mission from Jesus to spread the Good News and they gave their lives fulfilling that mission. They met in homes, cared for one another, and regularly made sacrifices for the good of each other and for the good of their new Church—they were a family of faith.

Think about the long history of our two Parishes. There have certainly been difficulties, like most families, but through it all we have continued our mission. Think about the generations of our family members that have received their sacraments, have laughed and cried together, have learned and grown, and have supported one another as a family of faith. We can even look at our most recent history, the past eight years since our twinning, and all of the moments where our roots and family ties have shined. Our faith, our Church, is more than two distinct Parishes, today I believe the family feel of St. Ann and St. Joseph Catholic Parishes is even more prevalent.

From our community building events like the picnic and fall family event, to our outreach activities coordinated by the joint Social Concerns Committee, to our spiritual events like the different novenas and devotions, through it all, our family shines. I recently spoke with a family that lost a loved one some time ago and the widow spoke about how wonderful the St. Martha’s Meals were, and how great it was to feel like other people in the Parishes really cared. This parishioner went on to describe how much her Parish family meant to her, especially during the difficult times. This is the family the graphic was referring to and I hope this is the family we all belong to.

It seems to me that it’s easy to get distracted in Parishes by all of the important, but not really too important stuff. It’s easy for us to miss what’s really going on: a dynamic family seeking to grow in holiness together. I don’t know about you all, but I regularly brag about our family here, about how caring and compassionate people are, about how generous and thoughtful people are, and about how genuinely faith-filled and Christ-centered people are. Thanks for being such a great family—I truly feel like we all belong here! God bless.

Sincerely Yours in Christ,
Fr. Michael Roemmele

News from our Parishes

Please keep the families of Sherri Brunner and Steve Szynamowski, Jr. in your prayers as they grieve the loss of their loved ones.

We need your help! Our vision for the St. Ann/St. Joseph Fair Booth is expanding. We would like to include two wooden standup cutouts that our visitors can put their faces in for photographs – one for the children and one for adults. If you are handy with wood projects or have artistic talent, we would love to hear from you! Please call the Parish Office at 419.332.7472 or 419.334.2638, or contact Annette Mercer, Steve Neiling, or Pat Heyman if you are interested in helping with this project. We will get everyone together at a later date to finalize plans and start sketching, designing, sawing, and painting. Thank you!!!

Help Needed! St. Ann’s is looking for someone to help with laundering the Altar Linens. Currently three ladies are laundering them but they could use some help. If you are interested, please call Judy Good at 419.366.1025.

The next team to host Coffee and Donuts on August 4 at St. Ann’s is Team #2: Karen and Jacob Darr.

The Hispanic Prayer Group is hosting a Spiritual Retreat on August 2 from 7:00-9:00 p.m. and August 3 from 9:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m. in the Parish Hall at St. Joseph’s. An encounter with Christ can change everything—come and see how to live a true renewal!

We Welcome in Baptism at St. Ann’s…Alexander Steffen. Congratulations!

Thanks! St. Ann and St. Joseph Catholic Parishes are blessed to have parishioners who are so generous with their time, talent, and treasure. We continue to work on Phase One of our projects in each Parish. Please remember that the project for each Parish will be funded by large gifts already received, by savings, and by the generous contributions of parishioners and visitors. If you would like to support the project at either Parish, please make use of the envelopes in the pews or by the exits at each Church. You may also contact either Parish Office directly for more information or to support the efforts. So far, your investments into the future for our Parishes is: St. Ann—$31,585.91 and St. Joseph—$118,588.00. Again, thank you for your continued prayers and support!
Jean Foos is a longtime parishioner whose involvement at St. Joseph’s has been a great asset. Jean was the secretary at St. Joseph Elementary School for 31 years, retiring on September 15, 2002. She has been married to Norman for 60 years and together they raised four children. They have 10 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren. Among the many things she does for the parish, she served 2 terms on Pastoral Council, 1 year on Finance Council, and is the current Eucharistic Minister Coordinator. She also schedules the Sunday Collection Money Counter teams, is a member of the Blessed Sacrament Confraternity, the Croghan Street Garden Club, and is a volunteer for mailings when needed. Jean can also be seen helping others in the Gift Shop at ProMedica Memorial Hospital.

Watch the bulletin for information on upcoming F.A.C.T. events for the next school year!

Food For Thought

Luke gives more attention to Jesus’ teachings on prayer than any other Gospel writer. He also mentions Jesus at prayer more than the others. In today’s reading, from the beginning of Chapter 11 of his Gospel, Luke presents the core of Jesus’ teaching on prayer. It consists of Jesus teaching a prayer to his disciples, a parable on the persistent neighbor, and assurances that God hears our prayers.

The disciples notice Jesus praying “in a certain place.” They ask him to teach them to pray just as John the Baptist had taught his disciples. Jesus teaches them a simple version of the most famous Christian prayer, the Our Father, or the Lord’s Prayer. Matthew’s version shows signs of being shaped by public prayer. Luke’s version is probably closer to the original form that Jesus taught. Stripped of much of the language we are used to, Luke’s version seems simple and direct. We pray that God’s name will be recognized as holy and that his rule over all will be established. This is followed by petitions for our needs for bread, for forgiveness, and for deliverance. Luke uses the more theological language of “sins” rather than “debts,” which is used in Matthew’s version.

Having taught his disciples a simple, daily prayer, Jesus goes on to reassure them that God answers prayers. First he tells a parable about a persistent neighbor who asks a friend for bread at midnight. The friend is already in bed and has no desire to disturb his family by opening the door. But because the neighbor is persistent, the sleeping man gets up and gives him all that he needs. If a neighbor is willing to help us if we are persistent enough, how could God not respond to our requests?

This teaching concludes with the reminder that if we seek, we will get a response. If a human father, with all his faults, knows how to give good gifts to his children, how much more will our Heavenly Father give us? Instead of good gifts, however, Luke substitutes the word Holy Spirit. This foreshadows the gift of the Holy Spirit, who is central to Luke’s theology and who will play an important role in the growth of the early Church after Pentecost.

The parable and the concluding teaching in this section should not lead us to think of prayer as a series of requests presented to God. Rather, as Jesus teaches in his model prayer, prayer consists in recognizing God’s holiness and his rule over all things.
Other News

St. Ann Little Blessings Child Care is currently accepting registrations for the summer—they are open from 6:00 a.m. -6:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. Please call 419.332.6598 for more information.

Sick and Homebound Parishioners-If you know of someone who is sick, homebound, or in a long-term care facility and would like their name on the Prayer List or would like to be on our list to schedule a visit and receive Communion, please call the Parish Office at St. Ann’s at 419.332.7472 or at St. Joseph’s at 419.334.2638.

Sanctuary Candles are now available at both parishes for sponsorship. This is a wonderful way to memorialize a loved one who has died, to honor a special anniversary, or to lift up a specific intention. Please call your Parish Office for more information or to reserve your week.

A Family Perspective-Today’s gospel guarantees if we “ask” we will “receive,” perhaps not what we wanted but what our Heavenly Father knows is best for us, His children. All the love we have for our children, God has for us and more. As our children trust us, we must trust “Our Father.”

Scout Troop 339 will have a Paper Drive August 3 and August 4 at St. Ann Church Parking Lot. 20% of the proceeds will be given to Food for the Poor.

Rosary Walk-We will once again be praying the Rosary at St. Joseph/St. Ann Cemetery on Saturday, August 3 at 7:30 a.m. Please join us for a quiet walk through the cemetery. We will meet at the St. Casimir Altar.

St. Vincent de Paul will have their next meeting on September 16 at 7:00 p.m. in the Holy Family Room at St. Joseph’s. If anyone needs help, please call 419.378.0895 or 419.552.4391. New members are always welcome!

The Diocesan Wedding Anniversary Celebration is for those who have celebrated or are celebrating their 25, 40, 50, 60 year or more wedding anniversary. Mass will be held on October 27 at 3:00 p.m. at Our Lady, Queen of the Most Holy Rosary Cathedral in Toledo. A reception will follow. To register, please call the Parish Office today!
