York Catholic is hosting a Futures Marching Band Camp

York Catholic is hosting a Futures Marching Band Camp on Saturday, September 9, from 8 AM-2 PM for any 4th, 5th, or 6th grade student who has played a band instrument for at least a year or who would be interested in color guard.

Students will have the opportunity to play level-appropriate Marching Band music, as well as learn basic drill techniques, and basic color guard techniques with a little fun thrown in. A mini-show for parents will take place at 1:45 PM. Lunch, snack, flipbook, lyre, and music will be provided. The cost is $25 per child. Please bring a refillable water bottle, comfortable sneakers, bug spray, sunscreen, hat, and wear comfortable clothing. Registration and payment are due by September 5. For more information and to register, visit <https://yorkcatholic.org/futures-events/>

Any 6th-grade band student who attends a parochial school is welcome to play with the York Catholic Marching Band in the stands at the October 13 football game. You do not need to attend the minicamp in order to play with us. Please email Ms. Cecelia Mezza at cmezza@yorkcatholic.org if you are interested. Report time is at 5:45 PM in the YC Band Room. Students can leave at halftime or stay for the full game.
