ADORATION & CONFESSION - CORONA VIRGUS PRECAUTIONS

Eucharistic Adoration

All four of our churches will be open for Eucharistic Adoration this Sunday, March 22, 2020 from 9 am-Noon.

Those who come for private prayer are asked to maintain social distancing. This is simple Eucharistic Adoration and reposition; benediction will not be held.

We are still awaiting word on what suggestions the diocese has for the special day of prayer on Wednesday, March 25th, the Feast of the Annunciation.

Confessions

Regular confessions on Saturday at both St. Gabriel's and St. Valentine's churches will be held from 11am-Noon without the use of the confessionals.

We are making separate arrangements for how to follow specific diocesan instructions for confession, which include a special screen.

This week - tonight and tomorrow (March 18 and 19) - there will be no confessions which are typically held from 6:15-6:45pm before masses at Nativity (Wednesday) and St. Germaine's (Thursday)..

At each of the four churches I ask that either a parish secretary or associated staff member leave an answering machine message about both the Saturday confessions and Sunday Eucharistic Adoration.

Thanks for all of your efforts and cooperation during this difficult time.

God bless, Fr. John
