ST. MARY'S CATHEDRAL OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Welcome to St. Mary's Cathedral

From its dedication in 1926, St. Mary's Cathedral has stood as the gracious center of the Archdiocese of Portland in Oregon. The cathedral belongs to the 400,000 Catholics of the archdiocese and serves as a place of ceremony and celebration for those who come here. The cathedral is also a parish church, and as such it is home to its parishioners and a welcoming place for all visitors. More history of the Cathedral can be found on our website.

The cathedral was designed in 1925 by the firm of Jacobberger and Smith. It is in the Romanesque style with some Byzantine features and covers an area of 12,000 square feet. The stained glass windows in the transept date from one of the earlier cathedrals. Statues of the Sacred Heart and the Blessed Mother were brought in by the Benedictine monks of Mount Angel. The Stations of the Cross and the Povey Brothers dome above the altar date from 1926. Other artwork, including the paintings in the apse, the lights, the stained glass windows, the etched windows in the vestibule, and the icons were either installed at the time of the 1996 restoration of Archbishop Leveda or in the years since then.

She will assist me in all things pastoral and take charge of all aspects of Faith Formation e.g. RCIA, Religious Ed., Adult Ed. Brigid will usually be present after all the weekend Masses to help parishioners with anything from Mass intentions to registering for events and general information about the cathedral and parish life. Brigid will also coordinate our weddings and take on the social outreach programs which the cathedral supports. Please greet her after Mass and wish her well in her new position.

Seminarian Coffee Morning - we would like to invite you to coffee and treats after the 7:30am Mass on Thursday 22 July. Our seminarians Luke and Justin will host - it will be great opportunity for the daily Mass crowd to get to know the seminarians and each other - we hope to see you there!

RCIA - starting on Tuesday 14 September we will be joining with St. Patrick's Parish to offer the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA). Brigid Young will be the coordinator of this joint venture. RCIA sessions will take place on Tuesday evenings at 6:30pm in the cathedral school library. RCIA is for those non-catholic (baptized or not) who would like to enter the Church. It is also for those who were baptized catholic but never received any formation and adults seeking confirmation. If you are interested, or know of anyone interested please contact Paulette Peynet (paulette@prinstitute.org) or see me or Brigid Young after Mass.

Coffee & Donuts - please join us for Coffee & Donuts after the 9:00am Mass on Sunday 25 July. I am grateful to the members of the Pastoral Council for organizing this. We hope to have one more event in August and then start offering Coffee & Donuts after the 9:00am Mass every Sunday. Please join me and your fellow parishioners on this simple occasion of community.

I am grateful - to the anonymous parishioner who writes weekly to correct the spelling and grammar of my bulletin column. Please be assured that I take your comments extremely seriously and in the future will try harder to do a better job.

THIS WEEK AT CATHEDRAL

Celebrations in our Parish this Past Week:

Wedding: Andrew Dulley & Christine Everett

The Archbishop's Catholic Appeal supports many vital ministries across western Oregon. Through these ministries, we support our retired priests and provide pastoral care for those in need. The needs have only increased these past few months and the Church needs you now more than ever. Though some parishes have had limited openings due to the circumstances, Christ still remains and asks for you to return to Him, both in time and resources. To learn more and to donate go to archdpdx.org.

A big Thank You to all of our advertisers on the back of the bulletin. Please support these businesses as the ads they place allow us to receive free printing of the bulletin. Do you have a business you would like to promote to the St. Mary's Cathedral community? Please call 1-800-950-9952 or www.4lpi.com to inquire about placing an ad on the back of the bulletin.

A Note of Caution: Please do not leave anything of value visible in your car while attending Mass. There has been a rash of car break-ins in our NW neighborhood.

Download Breaking Bread: OCP has the Breaking Bread 2021 eMissal app. Complete with music, readings, prayers and Order of Mass, this digital resource helps you fully participate in the liturgy. The Breaking Bread 2021 eMissal app is available for iOS and Android users for only $4.99 for the entire year. Go to your favorite app store and download today.

Entrance Antiphon

See, I have God for my help. The Lord sustains my soul. I will sacrifice to you with willing heart, and praise your name, O Lord, for it is good.

Opening Hymn

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the king of creation! O my soul, praise him, for he is your health and salvation! Come, all who hear: Now to his altar draw near, Joining in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, who shall prosper our work and defend us; Surely his goodness and mercy shall daily attend us. Ponder anew what the Almighty can do, Who with his love will befriend us.

Praise to the Lord! O let all that is in us adore him! All that has life and breath come now with praises before him! Let the “Amen” sound from his people again, Now as we worship before him!

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, only begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading Jer 23:1-6

Woe to the shepherds who mislead and scatter the flock of my pasture, says the LORD. Therefore, thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, against the shepherds who shepherd my people: You have scattered my sheep and driven them away. You have not cared for them, but I will take care to punish your evil deeds. I myself will gather the remnant of my flock from all the lands to which I have driven them and bring them back to their meadow; there they shall increase and multiply. I will appoint shepherds for them who will shepherd them so that they need no longer fear and tremble; and none shall be missing, says the LORD.

Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will raise up a righteous shoot to David; as king he shall reign and govern wisely, he shall do what is just and right in the land. In his days Judah shall be saved, Israel shall dwell in security. This is the name they give him: “The LORD our justice.”

Responsorial:

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Second Reading Eph 2:13-18

Brothers and sisters: In Christ Jesus you who once were far off have become near by the blood of Christ.

For he is our peace, he who made both one and broke down the dividing wall of enmity, through his flesh, abolishing the law with its commandments and legal claims, that he might create in himself one new person in place of the two, thus establishing peace, and might reconcile both with God, in one body, through the cross, putting that enmity to death by it. He came and preached peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near, for through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father.

Gospel Mk 6:30-34

The apostles gathered together with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught. He said to them, “Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while.” People were coming and going in great numbers, and they had no opportunity even to eat. So they went off in the boat by themselves to a deserted place. People saw them leaving and many came to know about it. They hastened there on foot from all the towns and arrived at the place before them. When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

At the words that follow, up to and including and became man, all bow and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Offertory/Communion Hymn

Shepherd of souls, refresh and bless Your chosen pilgrim flock
With manna in the wilderness, With water from the rock.

We would not live by bread alone, But by your word of grace,
In strength of which we travel on To our abiding place.

Be known to us in breaking bread, But do not then depart;
Savior, abide with us, and spread Your table in our heart.

Lord, sup with us in love divine; Your body and your blood,
That living bread, that heav'nly wine, Be our immortal food.

Communion Antiphon

The Lord, the gracious, the merciful, has made a memorial of his wonders;
he gives food to those who fear him.

Closing Hymn

Joyful, joyful, we adore thee, God of glory, Lord of love;
Hearts unfold like flow'rs before thee, Op'ning to the sun above.
Melt the clouds of sin and sadness; Drive the dark of doubt away;
Giver of immortal gladness, Fill us with the light of day.

All thy works with hoy surround thee, Earth and heav'n reflect thy rays,
Stars and angels sing around thee, Center of unbroken praise;
Field and forest, vale and mountain, Flow'ry meadow, flashing sea,
Chanting bird and flowing fountain, Call us to rejoice in thee.

Thou are giving and forgiving, Ever blessing, ever blest,
Wellspring of the joy of living, Ocean depth of happy rest!
Thou our Father, Christ our brother, All who live in love are thine;
Teach us how to love each other, Lift us to the joy divine.
