ST. MARY'S CATHEDRAL OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Welcome to St. Mary's Cathedral

From its dedication in 1926, St. Mary's Cathedral has stood as the gracious center of the Archdiocese of Portland in Oregon. The cathedral belongs to the 400,000 Catholics of the archdiocese and serves as a place of ceremony and celebration for those who come here. The cathedral is also a parish church, and as such it is home to its parishioners and a welcoming place for all visitors. More history of the Cathedral can be found on our website.

The cathedral was designed in 1925 by the firm of Jacobberger and Smith. It is in the Romanesque style with some Byzantine features and covers an area of 12,000 square feet. The stained glass windows in the transept date from one of the earlier cathedrals. Statues of the Sacred Heart and the Blessed Mother were brought in by the Benedictine monks of Mount Angel. The Stations of the Cross and the Povey Brothers dome above the altar date from 1926. Other artwork, including the paintings in the apse, the lights, the stained glass windows, the etched windows in the vestibule, and the icons were either installed at the time of the 1996 restoration of Archbishop Leveda or in the years since then.

FROM THE RECTOR

Misconception! - I was recently told by a parishioner that since there is no collection at the cathedral that weekly donations were not necessary because the Archdiocese pays for the cost of operating the cathedral. Unfortunately that is not the case. The Archdiocese does not pay for any of the operating costs or capital costs of the cathedral. Therefore, you see how important your donations are to us. We are treated as an ordinary parish that must support itself and operate within its means. During November we will be having a 'drive' to sign parishioners on to e-giving - please prayerfully consider your support of the cathedral. If you are not already a user of WeShare please go to our website and sign up. If you need help please call the parish office and we can set you up an account and giving schedule. You can use Credit or Debit cards or your checking account. Thank you!

All Saints - the Solemnity of All Saints (Nov 1) falls on a Monday this year and therefore it is not a holyday of obligation. We do have the ability to celebrate this great Solemnity on the previous Sunday if the Solemnity outranks a Sunday of Ordinary Time which it does. Therefore we will celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints on Sunday 31 October (Including Sat Vigil Mass.) We will also celebrate the Solemnity at the 5:30pm Mass on Monday 1 November.

All Souls - the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed is celebrated on Tuesday 2 November, please join us at 7:30am Mass to pray for our beloved dead. In addition to pray specifically for the dead on this day it is a virtuous practice for us to offer the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass for the dead. If you have a loved one that you would like to have a Mass offered for, please call the parish office and we will gladly schedule a Mass sometime in the near future.

Seminarian Appeal - this appeal has started and there are envelopes in the pews for you to donate. This is a very worthwhile cause as it directly supports those young men who have decided to give their lives to the service of Our Lord and his church. Please be generous to this appeal and thank you in anticipation. You can also use WeShare to give.

Holy Communion - Please remove your mask before you receive Holy Communion. It is still an issue with people touching the host to their mask and dropping the host because they are messing with their mask while holding Our Lord in their hand. It is really simple - please drop your mask before you accept the Sacred Host.

As always - if you would like to get in touch with me please drop me an email at goconnor@archdpx.org or call the parish office.

THIS WEEK

All Saints Day (Monday, November 1) is not a Holyday of Obligation this year. There will be the one Mass at 5:30pm.

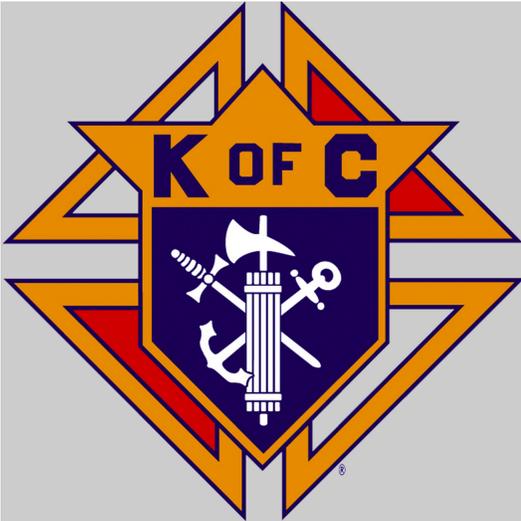

Jesus: The Way, the Truth and the Life: Join Deacon Scott for a 10-week video series (started September 20) on Jesus from 6:30-7:30pm. It is a virtual tour of the Holy Land, led by Marcellino D'Ambrosia, Jeff Cavins and Edward Sri. It is a video followed by discussion and faith sharing. You don't have to attend all the session to participate. There is no need to sign up, just come to the Upper Center. For more information, contact Deacon Scott, skolbet@cathedralpdx.org.

Chapel Chats with Archbishop Sample: Archbishop Sample talks to us live most Friday evenings directly from his home chapel on a variety of topics. To join in, go to archdpx.org/shepherd.

World Mission Sunday: Today is World Mission Sunday. We celebrate this day by remembering our baptismal call, to bring the Gospel to all. The collection today for the Society for the Propagation of the faith supports the work and witness of the Mission Church, as it provides for priests, religious and lay leaders who offer the Lord's mercy and concrete help to the most vulnerable communities in the Pope's missions. Thank you for your generosity.

Readings: For October 31, 2021
(All Saints) Rv 7:2-4, 9-14/1 Jn 3:1-3/Mt 5:1-12a (667) Pss Prop

We are very grateful for your contributions to the Cathedral! Please consider making your parish contribution through WeShare - go to our website to sign up!

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 24, 2021

Entrance Antiphon

Let the hearts that seek the Lord rejoice; turn to the Lord and his strength; constantly seek his face.

Opening Hymn

O God beyond all praising, We worship you today
And sing the love amazing That songs cannot repay;
For we can only wonder At ev'ry gift you send,
at blessings without number And mercies without end:
We lift our hearts before you And wait upon your word,
We honor and adore you, Our great and mighty Lord.

Then hear, O gracious Savior, Accept the love we bring,
That we who know your favor May serve you as our King;
And whether our tomorrows Be filled with good or ill,
We'll triumph through our sorrows And rise to bless you still:
To marvel at your beauty And glory in your ways,
And make a joyful duty Our sacrifice of praise.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, only begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading Jer 31:7-9

Thus says the LORD: Shout with joy for Jacob, exult at the head of the nations; proclaim your praise and say: The LORD has delivered his people, the remnant of Israel. Behold, I will bring them back from the land of the north; I will gather them from the ends of the world, with the blind and the lame in their midst, the mothers and those with child; they shall return as an immense throng. They departed in tears, but I will console them and guide them; I will lead them to brooks of water, on a level road, so that none shall stumble. For I am a father to Israel, Ephraim is my first-born.

Responsorial:

The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

Second Reading Heb 5:1-6

Brothers and sisters: Every high priest is taken from among men and made their representative before God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. He is able to deal patiently with the ignorant and erring, for he himself is beset by weakness and so, for this reason, must make sin offerings for himself as well as for the people. No one takes this honor upon himself but only when called by God, just as Aaron was. In the same way, it was not Christ who glorified himself in becoming high priest, but rather the one who said to him: You are my son: this day I have begotten you; just as he says in another place: You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.

Gospel Mk 10:46-52

As Jesus was leaving Jericho with his disciples and a sizable crowd, Bartimaeus, a blind man, the son of Timaeus, sat by the roadside begging. On hearing that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say, "Jesus, son of David, have pity on me." And many rebuked him, telling him to be silent. But he kept calling out all the more, "Son of David, have pity on me." Jesus stopped and said, "Call him." So they called the blind man, saying to him, "Take courage; get up, Jesus is calling you." He threw aside his cloak, sprang up, and came to Jesus. Jesus said to him in reply, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man replied to him, "Master, I want to see." Jesus told him, "Go your way; your faith has saved you." Immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way.

Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

At the words that follow, up to and including and became man, all bow and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Offertory/Communion Hymn

Shepherd of souls, refresh and bless
Your chosen pilgrim flock
With manna in the wilderness,
With water from the rock.

We would not live by bread alone,
But by your word of grace,
In strength of which we travel on
To our abiding place.

Be known to us in breaking bread,
But do not then depart;
Savior, abide with us, and spread
Your table in our heart.

Lord, sup with us in love divine;
Your body and your blood,
That living bread, that heav'nly wine,
Be our immortal food.

Communion Antiphon

We will ring out our joy at your saving help and exult in the name of our God.

Closing Hymn

Joyful, joyful, we adore thee, God of glory, Lord of love;
Hearts unfold like flow'rs before thee,
Op'ning to the sun above. Melt the clouds of sin and sadness;
Drive the dark of doubt away; Giver of immortal gladness,
Fill us with the light of day.

All thy works with joy surround thee, Earth and heav'n reflect thy rays,
Stars and angels sing around thee, Center of unbroken praise;
Field and forest, vale and mountain, Flow'ry meadow, flashing sea,
Chanting bird and flowing fountain, Call us to rejoice in thee.

Thou art giving and forgiving, Ever blessing, ever blest,
Wellspring of the joy of living, Ocean depth of happy rest!
Thou our Father, Christ our brother, All who live in love are thine;
Teach us how to love each other, Lift us to the joy divine.
