ST. MARY'S CATHEDRAL OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Welcome to St. Mary's Cathedral

From its dedication in 1926, St. Mary's Cathedral has stood as the gracious center of the Archdiocese of Portland in Oregon. The cathedral belongs to the 400,000 Catholics of the archdiocese and serves as a place of ceremony and celebration for those who come here. The cathedral is also a parish church, and as such it is home to its parishioners and a welcoming place for all visitors. More history of the Cathedral can be found on our website.

The cathedral was designed in 1925 by the firm of Jacobberger and Smith. It is in the Romanesque style with some Byzantine features and covers an area of 12,000 square feet. The stained glass windows in the transept date from one of the earlier cathedrals. Statues of the Sacred Heart and the Blessed Mother were brought in by the Benedictine monks of Mount Angel. The Stations of the Cross and the Povey Brothers dome above the altar date from 1926. Other artwork, including the paintings in the apse, the lights, the stained glass windows, the etched windows in the vestibule, and the icons were either installed at the time of the 1996 restoration of Archbishop Leveda or in the years since then.

FROM THE RECTOR

Donation box - A parishioner asked me to remind you that there is a donation box in the cathedral - it is near the baptismal font. It can be used for Sunday collections or other donations you may want to give to the cathedral. We have ordered some more donation boxes which will be placed in the entrance of the cathedral, they will be more conspicuous but tasteful.

A Man for all Seasons - I mentioned in my homily last weekend the 1966 film A Man for All Seasons by Robert Bolt. It really is a tremendous film I recommend that you see it. To that end, the seminarians and I will be watching this film on Thursday 18 November in St. Joseph's hall at 6:30pm. All are welcome to join us - we'll provide refreshments!

November Drive - During the month of November we will try to subscribe our parishioners to electronic giving. After each Mass we will have someone available to help you sign up for WeShare. It can be done with credit or debit cards or by direct deposit via a checking account. For some of you who have asked if a computer is needed - the answer is no! It is not necessary for you to own/use a computer we can set up your account and manage it for you. Please consider moving to e-giving and will you prayerfully consider the amount that you give to the cathedral - of course we greatly appreciate your continued support of our cathedral community. Thank you!

Financial Update - I have produced a short video which details the current financial position of the cathedral. This video will be emailed to all our parishioners during the first week of November and next weekend I will give a brief presentation at the conclusion of Masses. The video will be also available on the cathedral website. I hope that you will get an accurate and transparent picture of both the financial challenges and opportunities we face.

Month of the Holy Souls - November is the month which the Church remembers all the souls of the faithful departed. Please keep the poor souls in purgatory in your daily prayers. If you would like to have a Mass offered for the repose of the soul of a loved one, please call the parish to schedule your intention.

Bell Tower Repairs - We have had some setbacks in our Water Infiltration Project. Two of the columns in the bell-tower needed to be replaced and this prompted a historical review on the part of the city. This should be complete in the next 3 weeks and work can then re-commence.

As always - if you would like to get in touch with me please drop me an email at goconnor@archdpx.org or call the parish office.

Solemnity of All Saints Day

Entrance Antiphon

Let us all rejoice in the Lord, as we celebrate the feast day in honor of all the Saints, at whose festival the Angels rejoice and praise the Son of God.

Opening Hymn

For all the Saints, who from their labors rest, Who you by faith before the world confessed, Your Name, O Jesus, be forever blest. Alleluia, alleluia!

O blest communion, fellowship divine! We feebly struggle, they in glory shine; Yet all are one within your great design. Alleluia, alleluia!

But lo! There breaks a yet more glorious day; The saints triumphant rise in bright array; The King of Glory passes on his way. Alleluia, alleluia!

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, only begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading Rv 7:2-4,9-14

I, John, saw another angel come up from the East, holding the seal of the living God. He cried out in a loud voice to the four angels who were given power to damage the land and the sea, "Do not damage the land or the sea or the trees until we put the seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God." I heard the number of those who had been marked with the seal, one hundred and forty-four thousand marked from every tribe of the children of Israel. After this I had a vision of a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people, and tongue. They stood before the throne and before the Lamb, wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice:

"Salvation comes from our God, who is seated on the throne, and from the Lamb."

All the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures. They prostrated themselves before the throne, worshiped God, and exclaimed:

"Amen. Blessing and glory, wisdom and thanksgiving, honor, power, and might be to our God forever and ever. Amen."

Then one of the elders spoke up and said to me, "Who are these wearing white robes, and where did they come from?" I said to him, "My lord, you are the one who knows."

He said to me, "These are the ones who have survived the time of great distress; they have washed their robes and made them white in the Blood of the Lamb."

Responsorial:

Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.

Second Reading I Jn 31-3

Beloved: See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God. Yet so we are.

The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed. We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. Everyone who has this hope based on him makes himself pure, as he is pure.

Gospel

Mt 5:1-12a

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain, and after he had sat down, his disciples came to him. He began to teach them, saying:

“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven. Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the land. Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied. Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy. Blessed are the clean of heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.”

Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

At the words that follow, up to and including and became man, all bow and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Offertory/Communion Hymn

Immortal, invisible, God only wise, In light inaccessible hid from our eyes, Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, Almighty, victorious, your great name we praise.

Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light, Nor wanting, nor wasting, you rule day and night; Your justice like mountains high soaring above Your clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light, Your angels adoring, all veiling their sight, We too, God invisible, offer our praise; O light inaccessible, Ancient of Days!

Communion Antiphon

Blessed are the clean of heart, for they shall see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called children of God. Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.

Closing Hymn

Faith of our fathers! Living still in spite of dungeon, fire and sword. O how our hearts beat high with joy When e'er we hear that glorious word! Faith of our fathers, holy faith! We will be true to thee till death.

Faith of our fathers! We will strive To win all nations unto thee. And through the truth that comes from God We all shall then be truly free:
Faith of our fathers, holy faith! We will be true to thee till death.

Faith of our fathers! We will love Both friend and foe in all our strife, And preach thee, too, as love knows how By kindly words and virtuous life:
Faith of our fathers, holy faith! We will be true to thee till death.
