Welcome to St. Mary's Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception

RELIGIOUS ART SPOTLIGHT

FROM THE RECTOR

The state officially lifted the indoor mask requirement for Oregonians on March 12, 2022. Beginning Saturday, March 12, the faithful will no longer be required to wear masks in Catholic churches or while attending faith-based Catholic activities. Mask use will be optional. The mask mandate will also be lifted for Catholic schools making masking in schools optional as of March 12. I am grateful to all of our parishioners who have accepted and implemented the mask mandates during these last two years.

Please join us for Stations of the Cross during Lent on Fridays at 7:00pm. The Stations are preceded by a light supper provided by the Knights of Columbus starting at 6:00pm in St. Joseph's Hall.

The Archbishop's Catholic Appeal 2022 (ACA) has begun. I gave a brief homily regarding First Fruits and Tithing last weekend. We also sent an email out giving you the opportunity to watch the ACA Video and a link to make a donation.

Here is a reply we received from one of the recipients of that email: "Take me off your email list Connor. I don't like you. You are arrogant & a poor excuse of a Catholic. I will give to Archbishop's appeal because I choose to not because you are attempting to manipulate Catholics to make yourself look better. Please quit."

Please give to this year's ACA, whether you do it to help the Archbishop in his mission to evangelize and help those in need or just to make me look better, either way - it's a good cause!!

St. Patrick was a brave man who returned to Ireland, where he had been kept as a slave, to help convert the people of Ireland to Christianity from paganism. He lived with constant danger to his life. Legend has it he drove away the snakes of Ireland and used the shamrock to explain the Holy Trinity. This year make St. Patrick's Day about the man and the beauty of the Catholic faith, not leprechauns and rainbows.

Classroom Happenings:

The 8th graders read books they wrote and illustrated in Spanish to their Kindergarten buddies. The books were all about what the 8th graders were like and what they did when they were 5 years old. Some students took time after the books to play games or draw pictures with their buddies.

The 2nd Sunday of Lent

March 13, 2022

Entrance Antiphon

Of you my heart has spoken: Seek his face. It is your face, O Lord, that I seek; hide not your face from me.

Opening Hymn

See choir program.

First Reading Gn 15:5-12, 17-18

The Lord God took Abram outside and said, "Look up at the sky and count the stars, if you can. Just so," he added, "shall your descendants be." Abram put his faith in the LORD, who credited it to him as an act of righteousness.

He then said to him, "I am the LORD who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans to give you this land as a possession." "O Lord GOD," he asked, "how am I to know that I shall possess it?" He answered him, "Bring me a three-year-old heifer, a three-year-old she-goat, a three-year-old ram, a turtledove, and a young pigeon." Abram brought him all these, split them in two, and placed each half opposite the other; but the birds he did not cut up. Birds of prey swooped down on the carcasses, but Abram stayed with them. As the sun was about to set, a trance fell upon Abram, and a deep, terrifying darkness enveloped him. When the sun had set and it was dark, there appeared a smoking fire pot and a flaming torch, which passed between those pieces. It was on that occasion that the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying: "To your descendants I give this land, from the Wadi of Egypt to the Great River, the Euphrates."

Responsorial:

The Lord is my light and my salvation.

Second Reading Phil 3:17-4:1

Join with others in being imitators of me, brothers and sisters, and observe those who thus conduct themselves according to the model you have in us. For many, as I have often told you and now tell you even in tears, conduct themselves as enemies of the cross of Christ. Their end is destruction. Their God is their stomach; their glory is in their "shame." Their minds are occupied with earthly things. But our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we also await a savior, the Lord Jesus Christ. He will change our lowly body to conform with his glorified body by the power that enables him also to bring all things into subjection to himself.

Therefore, my brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, in this way stand firm in the Lord.

Gospel Lk 9:28b-36

Jesus took Peter, John, and James and went up the mountain to pray. While he was praying his face changed in appearance and his clothing became dazzling white. And behold, two men were conversing with him, Moses and Elijah, who appeared in glory and spoke of his exodus that he was going to accomplish in Jerusalem. Peter and his companions had been overcome by sleep, but becoming fully awake, they saw his glory and the two men standing with him. As they were about to part from him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good that we are here; let us make three tents, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." But he did not know what he was saying. While he was still speaking, a cloud came and cast a shadow over them, and they became frightened when they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my chosen Son; listen to him." After the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. They fell silent and did not at that time tell anyone what they had seen.

Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

At the words that follow, up to and including and became man, all bow and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
