Welcome to St. Mary's Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception

RELIGIOUS ART SPOTLIGHT

Looking from Left to right on the apse walls, the fourth panel depicts a collection of holy women influenced by Mary and Her son. At the foot of the panel is the figure of Mary Magdalene in scarlet garments. Above her is the virgin, St. Agnes. The lamb next to Agnes is a symbol of innocent sacrifice. Close to St. Agnes is St. Genevieve, the child shepherdess. Above and to the right is Queen Elizabeth of Hungary. Over her shoulder is St. Lucy, an early martyr. At her elbow is the maid of Orleans, St. Joan of Arc. Occupying the center of the gathering is the great scholar and theologian, St. Theresa of Avila. At her right is St. Perpetua with her infant, typifying motherhood. Above her is St. Cecilia, patroness of musicians, shown with her harp. The three angels at the top of the panel are holding the "Mirror of Justice," the "Tower of David" and the "Morning Star," all titles from the Litany of Mary, which they are singing.

FROM THE RECTOR

Lent is obviously a time of repentance and there is no better way to show our repentance than to be reconciled to God through the sacrament of penance (confession). We have confessions every Monday and Saturday from 4:00pm-5:15pm and every first Saturday after the 7:30am Mass. I am happy to meet with anyone individually if you would like to make an appointment for confession. Please drop me an email or call the parish office.

Thank you to the parishioner who donated the books for Lenten reading. I hope those who got copies find them useful.

We pray the Stations of the Cross every Friday during Lent at 7:00pm - Please join us for this beautiful devotion.

I re-print this from last week as there was a major mistake in it: "St. Mary's Cathedral does NOT take up a physical collection therefore please place your weekly donations in the collection boxes that can be found at the entrance of the cathedral. The majority of our parishioners use electronic giving via WeShare. It is easy to use and cuts down on administration. If you don't already use electronic giving can I encourage to sign-up, you can do this by visiting our webpage or call the parish office and we will be glad to get you started."

Prayer for the Synod

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts; Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen

St. Catherine of Bologna
MARCH 9TH

St. Catherine of Bologna was an Italian nun and artist born on September 8, 1413 in Bologna, Italy. St. Catherine was openly willing to serve the more humble roles in the convent. She was a laundress, a baker and a caretaker for the animals. We can learn from St. Catherine how to sanctify our everyday work and tasks.

CATHEDRAL SCHOOL 1896

CELEBRATING 125 YEARS 1896-2021

Community:
During the month of February, the Cathedral Community played a fun game of "Tag You're It!" The goal was to secretly leave the "Tag You're It" yard sign at the home of another current Cathedral family. The recipient had 24-48 hours to take that sign and secretly leave it at another Cathedral family's home, and so on and so on. We loved seeing where all the signs ended up!

Cathedral School is accepting applications for all grades for the 2022 - 2023 school year. Go to www.cathedral-or.org to apply today!

Entrance Antiphon

When he calls on me, I will answer him; I will deliver him and give him glory; I will grant him length of days.

Opening Hymn

See choir program.

First Reading Dt 26:4-10

Moses spoke to the people, saying: "The priest shall receive the basket from you and shall set it in front of the altar of the LORD, your God. Then you shall declare before the Lord, your God, 'My father was a wandering Aramean who went down to Egypt with a small household and lived there as an alien. But there he became a nation great, strong, and numerous. When the Egyptians maltreated and oppressed us, imposing hard labor upon us, we cried to the LORD, the God of our fathers, and he heard our cry and saw our affliction, our toil, and our oppression. He brought us out of Egypt with his strong hand and outstretched arm, with terrifying power, with signs and wonders; and bringing us into this country, he gave us this land flowing with milk and honey. Therefore, I have now brought you the firstfruits of the products of thesoil which you, O LORD, have given me.' And having set them before the LORD, your God, you shall bow down in his presence."

Responsorial:

Be with me Lord, when I am in trouble.

Second Reading Rom 10:8-13

Brothers and sisters: What does Scripture say?

The word is near you,
in your mouth and in your heart

—that is, the word of faith that we preach—, for, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved. For the Scripture says,

No one who believes in him will be put to shame.

For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all, enriching all who call upon him. For "everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved."

Gospel Lk 4:1-13

Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit into the desert for forty days, to be tempted by the devil. He ate nothing during those days, and when they were over he was hungry. The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become bread." Jesus answered him, "It is written, One does not live on bread alone." Then he took him up and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in a single instant. The devil said to him, "I shall give to you all this power and glory; for it has been handed over to me, and I may give it to whomever I wish. All this will be yours, if you worship me." Jesus said to him in reply, "It is written

You shall worship the Lord, your God, and him alone shall you serve."

Then he led him to Jerusalem, made him stand on the parapet of the temple, and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, for it is written:

He will command his angels concerning you, to guard you, and:

With their hands they will support you, lest you dash your foot against a stone."

Jesus said to him in reply, "It also says,

You shall not put the Lord, your God, to the test." When the devil had finished every temptation, he departed from him for a time.

Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

At the words that follow, up to and including and became man, all bow and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Offertory/Communion Hymn

See choir program.

Communion Antiphon

One does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of God.

Closing Hymn

LEARN

LECTIO: THE CASE FOR JESUS

In nine sessions, Dr. Brant Pitre answers the key question of faith: Who is Jesus? Dr. Pitre presents evidence from early Christian and non-Christian writings that attest to the authenticity of the Gospels. Timed to lead up to the Triduum, Dr. Pitre looks in-depth at the accounts of Jesus's Crucifixion and Resurrection and his proclamation of divinity.
