The Shepherds - Called to witness!

“In the same country there were shepherds awake in the fields, keeping night-watches over their flocks. And all at once an angel of the Lord came and stood by them, and the glory of the Lord shone about them so that they were overcome with fear. But the angel said to them, Do not be afraid; behold, I bring you good news of a great rejoicing for the whole people. This day, in the city of David, a Savior has been born for you, the Lord Christ himself. This is the sign by which you are to know him; you will find a child still in swaddling-clothes, lying in a manger. Then on a sudden a multitude of the heavenly army appeared to them at the angel’s side giving praise to God and saying, Glory to God in high heaven and peace on earth to men that are God’s friends.

When the angels had left them, and gone back to heaven, the shepherds said to one another, Come let us make our way to Bethlehem, and see for ourselves this happening which God has made known to us. And so they went with all haste, and found Mary and Joseph there, with the child lying in a manger. On seeing him, they discovered the truth of what had been told them about this child.

All those who heard it were full of amazement at the story which the shepherds told them; but Mary treasured up all these sayings, and reflected on them in her heart. And the shepherds went home giving praise and glory to God, at seeing and hearing that all was as it had been told them.”

(The Gospel according to St. Luke, Chapter 2, vs. 8 - 20)

[This passage is taken from “The Holy Bible: A translation from the Latin Vulgate in light of the Hebrew and Greek originals”. This full translation of the Bible written in modern English was authored by Monsignor Ronald Knox and first published in 1944.]

Supreme Chaplain : Archbishop Willian E. Lori:
Monthly Challenge - December 2019

“John the Baptist appeared, preaching in the desert of Judea and saying, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand!” It was of him that the prophet Isaiah had spoken when he said: “A voice of one crying out in the desert, ‘Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths.’” (Gospel for Dec. 8, Mt 3:1-3)

We are all familiar with the sense of panic that sets in when guests are due to arrive at our home. With people coming any minute, we rush to finish the cleaning and make the final preparations. My brother Knights, in this Gospel passage we find John the Baptist racing through the house, calling on everyone to prepare for the guest of a lifetime: Jesus Christ. This is our common task every day of Advent: to inspect every corner of our spiritual house and clean out the clutter, for Christ’s arrival is at hand. Let us pray for the grace to repent and prepare our souls for the coming of our Lord..

Challenge by Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William E. Lori:

This month, I challenge you to fast or abstain from meat one day a week to prepare for Christ’s coming. Second, I challenge you to help prepare for Christ’s coming through the Faith in Action Keep Christ in Christmas program or by simply wishing others a “Merry Christmas.”

Editor's Note December 2019:

Our editorial staff and contributing writers and photographer wish you and your family and friends a most blessed and rewarding Christmas.

During this past year, we have issued seven Compass Newsletters. four have been bi-monthly with the last three being monthly format. This December issue is our most recent edition.

We have been blessed with a small but devoted Editorial staff including writers and our photographer, Richard Woodcroft. Our writers include our Deacon, Bob Godlewsky. We thank him for his inspirational articles. In addition we have welcomed another new contributor Brother Joseph Gallagher who has called us all to become more involved and active in our Council and Assembly activities. We thank our Auxiliary President Virginia Aynes and Past Grand Knight Don Kasson for their reports during the year.

A special thanks goes out to Penny Fleming who makes it possible to get the Compass out to you by email. Bless you Penny for all that you do.

We could not have served you our readers without all of them.

Please consider joining our Compass team in 2020.

May you have a blessed Christmas. Your Editor

Merry Christmas !

Announcements from . . . Sir Knight Charles Kahler

Schedule for Collection Drives during Social Meetings next Year.

The following is a line-up of the local organizations that we will be sponsoring through collections at our monthly Social Meeting for the 2019 - 2020 Fraternal Year. For the next four months we will be collecting requested supplies by this schedule:

2020      January 2020 Meeting - - - - School Supplies
             February 2020 Meeting - - - Hospice House
             March 2020 Meeting - - - - - Veterans
             April 2020 Meeting - - - - - Baby Shower

Other Upcoming Events for next Year, 2020. . . .

Parish Walk for Life - On Saturday morning, January 18th 2020 all parishioners and the general public are invited to join our Knights on the campus of St. Francis of Assisi to participate in the Annual Walk for Life.

This is a walking pilgrimage with prayers for the unborn and their mothers. Those unable to make the walk are invited to pray in the church during the walk. A free will offering will be collected and donated to support the "Life Affirming" work of the Pregnancy Careline Center in Port Charlotte which serves our area.

Florida Knights of Columbus - Annual Financial Support for Seminarians

You recently received a mailing seeking your support for our Diocesan seminarians. If you have not already sent in your donation, we encourage you to reconsider and to donate today. This appeal recently renamed "The 12 Apostles Fund" helps defray the rising cost of educating and training our Seminarians. It's never too late to contribute to this most worthy work.

Donations may be made on the Knights of Columbus State website at <https://floridakofc.org/> or be made to Mark W. Lynn, Vocations Program Chairman. His address is 66 Tropical Drive, Ormond Beach, FL 32176. For further information contact him at: lynnmark@bellsouth.net.
