Bishop Guglielmone grew up here in Suffolk County, and taught business for five years in nearby Patchogue– Medford High School before entering the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception here in Huntington. Ordained a priest in our Diocese in 1978, he served in many different parishes and capacities here, including as Clergy Personnel Director for the Diocese and Rector of St. Agnes Cathedral. In 2009, he was called by Pope Benedict XVI to become the Bishop of the Diocese of Charleston, South Carolina, where he remained until his retirement in 2022. Bishop Guglielmone is now a “snow bird,” assisting parishes both here in Rockville Centre and in Charleston, SC.
