Old ways are crumbling and passing away—and for many Catholics, so is their faith. But the Holy Spirit has given us the way to go forward. It is by way of the spirituality of unity, the spirituality of communion.

Pope St. John Paul II told us: “To make the Church the home and school of communion [unity]: that is the great challenge facing us in the third millennium...Let us have no illusions: unless we follow this spiritual path, external structures of communion will serve very little purpose.”

Fr. Tom Ess, who has lived the spirituality of unity-communion for more than forty years, will conduct the four sessions which will include presentation and participation.
