Introductions to Sunday Readings: by Bishop Ken Untener, in collaboration with Catherine Haven & Fr. Bill Taylor

First Reading - Isaiah 8:23–9:3

Zebulun and Naphtali were two Jewish tribes who had settled in the northern area of the Holy Land. Eight centuries before Christ, this area experienced a bitter defeat at the hands of Assyria. The prophet Isaiah offers these defeated people hope by looking ahead to a day when they would be especially blessed. This northern area of the Holy Land was later known as Galilee, and Christians have seen Jesus as fulfilling this prophecy.

Second Reading - 1 Corinthians 1:10-13, 17

In his first letter to the Corinthians, Paul deals with issues the Church faces in every age. After Paul had founded this community and moved on, he heard of polarizations among the Corinthian Christians. In today's passage, he speaks bluntly to them about these divisions.

Serving the Homeless with Alternate Lodging Of Middletown

SHALOM came into existence to offer shelter, nourishment, and night time lodging to the homeless of Middletown at a time when it was feared that the city's only homeless shelter would be forced to close. Please pray for our SHALOM guests who we will be housing this week. We also would like to pray for all of those who are volunteering their time to help host our guests. "Heavenly Father, we lift up to You those without a place to call home. We ask for Your divine protection and provision, that they may find shelter and safety. Bless them with warmth and sustenance, and guide them to resources and people who can assist them. May Your love be their constant comfort, providing hope in times of uncertainty."

Many thanks to Vicki Sennet, Tony & Linda Esposito, Rick & Tina Jackson, Paul & Marj Haker, Vicki Trent, Patti Holweger, and Karen Caverly who served the delicious lasagna meal!

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Peter and Andrew, James and John — they were not expecting God that day. But there he was, right in front of them, beckoning. God stands before us today, and like the Apostles, we often don't see him coming. But still, he beckons. Will we follow?
