Next Sunday: Gn 12:1-4a/2 Tm 1:8b-10/Mt 17:1-9

Introductions to Sunday Readings: by Bishop Ken Untener, in collaboration with Catherine Haven & Fr. Bill Taylor

First Reading - Genesis 2:7-9; 3:1-7

The account of the sin of Adam and Eve is a classic example of how everyone sins. The author recognized that there is a standard pattern: We toy with temptation...we fall...then we make excuses.

Second Reading - Romans 5:12-19

Paul's letter to the Romans is his most detailed and important theological work. His purpose in this passage is not to teach about original sin, but to contrast Adam and Christ. From Adam we inherited a strong pull toward sin. From Christ (the "new Adam") we received a gift that is incomparably stronger: Divine grace.

OCIA - Rite of Sending / Rite of Election / Call to Continuing Conversion

Our Lady of Peace is celebrating the Rite of Sending at the 10:30 AM Mass today.

This is a very significant step in the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. The desire of our catechumens and candidates to continue in the OCIA process is affirmed by their sponsors and they are 'sent' to celebrate the Rite of Election (catechumens) and the Call to Continuing Conversion (candidates).

The catechumens - now known as the elect - publicly acknowledge their desire to receive the Sacraments of Initiation, and the candidates' desire to be received into full communion with the Catholic Church. This ceremony will be celebrated this afternoon at 2:00 PM at Our Lady of the Immaculate Conception Church on Smithville Road in Dayton.

Who is responsible for the OCIA catechumens and candidates who are seeking to be fully initiated into the Catholic Church? WE ALL ARE!

We are asked to pray for them, to give them good example and support. Bringing new members into the Church is part of what we are commissioned to do by Christ through our baptism.

Our faith is a gift, not for us alone, but for all. It is for us to share!

Special Clothing Collection in February

Our parishes will conduct a special collection for the entire month of February. Anyone who wishes to participate is asked to donate new socks and underwear for men and women. No children's sizes please - the Clothes Closet has mostly adult clients. These necessary clothing items will fill the shelves of the Middletown Interfaith Clothes Closet where needy families can receive clothing at no charge.

- Holy Family Parishioners - Please place your donation in the blue bins at the church doors.
- Holy Name Parishioners - Please place your donation in the bins at the back of the church.
- Our Lady of Sorrows - Please place your donation in the basket in the gathering space. Thank you!

My apologies

on the misspelling of Brad's name last week in the bulletin. Below you will find the name corrected and a link on where to buy the book.

Did you know that your fellow parishioner wrote a book?

Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of Lent. This is a period of reflection, repentance and prayer. In Brad Egelston's new novel, Reluctant Contrition, a young man living through the Nazi occupation of France during WWII goes through his own process of self examination. He wrestles with questions of guilt, forgiveness and maintains his faith in dark times. If you're in the mood for a story that would fit well with the spirit of Lent and perhaps prompt some inner reflection of your own, please consider Reluctant Contrition. You can find it on Amazon using the link below.
