Introductions to Sunday Readings: by Bishop Ken Untener, in collaboration with Catherine Haven & Fr. Bill Taylor

First Reading - Acts 6:1-7

In Jerusalem at the time of Christ, some Jewish people spoke Greek, other spoke Aramaic, and each group went to its own synagogue. It appears that the apostles were among those who spoke Aramaic. In today's reading, we will hear some of the problems this created in the Christian community and how these were addressed.

Second Reading - 1 Peter 2:4-9

The first letter of Peter was written to a Christian community that felt alienated from their pagan neighbors. Today the author reminds them that they belong to a special group of people, the people of God.

Bulletin/Announcement Deadline: Friday at noon - 1 week in advance via email to your parish office.

First Holy Eucharist a Big Deal!

For children who are receiving their First Holy Eucharist, this is a big deal!

And for all of us - no matter how many times we've received Our Lord in the Holy Eucharist - it should always be a big deal. What makes it so special the first time is the same thing that makes it special every time! Jesus comes to us in a unique way in the Eucharist and we truly shouldn't take it for granted! First Eucharist is such a holy, joyful occasion. Relatives are invited. Parents take pictures. We celebrate. And the very act of celebrating reveals our belief in the True Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. First Holy Eucharist is, without question, a time of great joy.

"You come to me," says St. Maximilian Kolbe to Jesus, speaking for all of us, "and unite Yourself intimately to me under the form of nourishment. What miracles! Who would have ever imagined such!" St. Mother Teresa also has words for us about the Eucharist: "Jesus has made Himself the Bread of Life to give us life. Night and day, He is there. If you really want to grow in love, come back to the Eucharist..."

Celebrating a First Communion

Congratulations to fifth-grader Andrew Schlueter, who celebrated his First Holy Communion during our school Mass on Tuesday, April 21.

Answers to the FIRST EUCHARIST Faith Quiz

- 1.(d) Catholics pray in front of the tabernacle in recognition of Christ's presence there. Consecrated hosts from the tabernacle are brought to the sick and homebound who cannot attend Mass.
- 2.(a) Blessed Imelda had such a deep love for Christ in the Eucharist that the consecrated host appeared over her when she prayed in front of the tabernacle.
- 3.(b) Christ is the word made flesh that is given to us through his teachings in the Scriptures as well as in the sacraments.
- 4.(d) Eucharist is how the faithful express their gratitude to the Father for creating all things, for saving us through Christ, and for making us holy through the Holy Spirit (see CCC, 1360).
- 5.(a) St. Thomas Aquinas used the term transubstantiation to describe how this miraculous change of bread and wine into body and blood happens: the external form stays the same but the substance changes (see CCC, 1376).
- 6.(d) Because the Eucharist is actually the Lord, it is treated with the utmost respect and consumed immediately, uniting Catholics with Christ in a holy communion (see General Instruction of the Roman Missal, 161.)
