What Counts Is A New Creation

There was one thing Paul tried never to do. What was it?

Write the one letter that each pair of objects has in common.

However, Paul did boast about one very special thing.

Draw lines between the pairs of symbols. On the line, write the letter that lies between the symbols to find the one thing Paul boasted about.

Paul did not pay attention to the things this world counts as important.

Think of 3-letter words to fit the clues. Use the letters to find what Paul thought was important.
