All are welcome to join the Song Circle for a dose of audible kindness and to let soothing voices bring comfort and peace to you. This is not a concert; rather it's an opportunity to honor, nurture, and share space with the community in contemplative and calming song. For those interested, the final half hour will include an invitation to join in the singing.

Threshold Choir of New York City (TCNYC) is a secular group of women volunteers who sing gently in small groups, upon invitation, at the bedside primarily of the seriously ill and dying (serving at hospices, medical centers, private homes). TCNYC is part of the Threshold Choir organization with chapters in over 150 communities around the world whose mission is to sing for and with those at the thresholds of life.
