

Coordinator of Faith Formation and Parish Discipleship

St. Denis in Shiocton and St. Patrick in Stephenville, WI

The Coordinator of Faith Formation and Parish Discipleship serves to design, implement, and oversee evangelization and discipleship efforts for the parish and communities, primarily through relational ministry and catechetical leader formation. In addition, they establish a comprehensive catechetical program for families to engage in lifelong discipleship formation. The primary segment of the population demographic of Shiocton and Stephenville is families.

We are seeking a passionate and vibrant witness to living the Catholic faith, who can provide formation in knowing, loving, and serving Jesus to students, parents, and catechists so that they can impact our community. Candidates should be able to articulate a vision for discipleship that incorporates but is not limited to saints and virtues. Candidates should be trustworthy, organized, have initiative, and be willing to invest in these parishes.
